

QUEEN ELIZABETH.

SUPPLICATIONS
OF SAINTS:

CONTAINING,
PRAYERS and PRAISES, In FOUR PARTS.

- | | |
|------------------------------|-------------------------|
| I. Daniel's Devotion. | I. Thrice every Day. |
| II. Paul's Assembly. | II. Companies. |
| III. David's Suit. | III. Every one alone. |
| IV. Moses's Song. | IV. Praises and Graces. |

Wherein are Three most excellent Prayers, made by the late famous Queen

E L I Z A B E T H.

The FORTY-FIFTH EDITION, Corrected.

By T H O M A S S O R O C O L D.

The Smoke of the Incense, which came with the Prayers of the Saints, ascended up before GOD, Rev. viii. 4.

L O N D O N:

Printed for R. WARE, at the Bible on Ludgate-Hill.

M.DCC.LIV.

357110411976

1900

doi:10.1017/S0022292412001616 Printed in the United Kingdom

100

T O

His most Excellent Highness, Prince C H A R L E S.

Most Gracious Prince,

IT is now almost a Year, since I presumed to present unto your Highness, this small Book, my poor Mite of Devotion; which your Sister, that most virtuous Princess Palatine of the Rhine, challenged for her own, long before the Translation of her into that Climate: Hereupon finding your gracious Entertainment of it, and being minded further to satisfy the Desires of God's People,

A 2

iv The Epistle Dedicatory.

People, whom I have found, for Devotion's Sake, to take it all in good Part; I have lately reviewed this weak Building; and besides some Reformations, I have inserted Additions of fix small Prayers, which I thought to be necessary for all good Christians, and knew to be desired by divers. When it is at the best, it is no Present worthy so Noble a Prince; yet because many Labours, (though meanly qualified) have gained unexpected Credit after they had once obtained Honourable Patrons; I do now again offer it into your Royal Hands, in all Humility, desiring the Continuance of your gracious Favour towards it; and then I shall continue as well to praise God for all your happy Deliverances, as to pray unto Him earnestly, for the multiplying of His Graces upon you, to the rejoicing of His Majesty our Sovereign, and his well-beloved Queen, your Royal Parents, besides the Good of the Realm and Dominions; evermore crying out with the sweet Singer of Israel, Give the King thy Judgments,

The Epistle Dedicatory. v

O GOD! and thy Righteousness unto the King's Son. Amen, and Amen.

Your Grace's,

In all Submission,

*From the Rectory of St.
Mildred, in the Poultry, Lond. 1617.*

THO. SOROCOLD.

THE BIBLE
O. GOD! and my Father, I pray for Thee, O Lord, and for all men.

P R E F A C E

TO THE READER

I have been much pleased to see this book so generally received.

P
I have been much pleased to see this book so generally received.

A P R E F A C E
TO ALL
DEVOUT PEOPLE;

S H E W I N G,

I. The Necessity of Supplications and Prayers.

II. Why the Book is intituled, Supplications of SAINTS.

PAUL, the blessed Apostle and Saint of GOD, was so well acquainted with the Practices and Devices of Satan, as appears in 2 Cor. ii. that he taketh great Care (by writing, and otherwise) lest that common Enemy should get any Advantage of them: And this may be a

viii P R E F A C E.

just Cause, why, amongst other Precepts, he chargeth the Coloffians, in ch. iv. v. 2. That they continue in Prayer, and watch in the same with Thanksgivings: That is, not to wax faint, nor slack therein. For such as have learned of the Lord Jesus (saith St. Augustine) true Humility, and Meekness of Heart, receive more Profit by Meditation and Prayer, than in Reading and Hearing: Whereby ye may be sure the religious Father meant not to traduce either the Preaching of the Word, or the Reading of any thing that may make a Man wise unto Salvation; but enforced a more reverent Respect, and more frequent Use of this godly Exercise: That as Men are commanded to be Doers of the Word, so they should be Seekers of Grace to do it by, and not Hearers only; for so (saith the Apostle) they should deceive themselves. For when Paul had planted, and Apollos watered; when one hath read a learned Treatise, and another hath heard a fruitful Sermon, they must refer the rest to him that giveth the Increase. And to whom will he give it? To him that seeketh, to him that knocketh, and to him

P R E F A C E. ix

him that asketh humbly and devoutly in his Prayer: Follow then his Counsel, which saith, Put up your Prayers to him, that he may send down his Grace to you. And again, Beloved, all is not Peace, if we consider of what Church we are, while we be in this World. St. Paul, tells us, That we are in a Warfare, and that Prayer is a principal Piece of our Armour; therefore his Counsel is, Pray always, and Watch thereunto. For we cannot (as Abisshai said to David, concerning his Blow) make so sure a Work at one Prayer Time, that we should not need to come again with our second; but rather, so many are our Sins, as the Hairs of our Head; so many our Enemies, as the Stars in the Sky; and so fierce and strong the Tempter, as a roaring Lion: That as the Man of GOD was angry with the King of Israel (because when he bad him smite the Earth with his Dart, he smote only thrice) who should have smitten five or six times; that he might have been assured of the Overthrow of his Enemies: So GOD, that bids us continue in Prayer, will be angry with us, if we pray not again and again, as the importunate

x P R E F A C E.

Widow in the Gospel prosecuted her Suit; yea, (to speak of Devotion as he doth of Brotherly Remission) if we pray not seven times, yea, seventy times seven, that we may obtain a Blessing. To this Purpose, Christian Brethren, I have been persuaded to publish to your View, and charitable Interpretation, this Handful of Flowers, picked, sorted, and tied up in a Bundle, according to my slender Ability, both of Judgment and Invention. I have presumed also to intitule them, Supplications of Saints, induced thereunto by three Reasons; First, Because they are squared to the Practices of three holy Prophets, and the blessed Apostle St. Paul. Secondly, Three of these Prayers (which are indeed Præstantiores, far more eminent and excellent than all the rest, proceeding from Human Conceit) and were penned and used by the late noble Queen Elizabeth, of famous and happy Memory, and may justly claim that Denomination as the Remains of her Devotion, who living a religious and peerless Princess, was accounted (as the Wise Man speaks) among the Children of God, Saints by Calling. And now, being

P R E F A C E. xi

being taken from us, hath her Portion among the Saints of Heaven. The Third Reason is, Because I hope they may be sometimes the Exercise of yourselves, who being called to the Participation of Jesus Christ, embracing the Gospel of GOD, and having received the Sacrament of Life, have also your Parts in the Communion of Saints. I have not held such a Course as happily other Collectors of the like Devotions have done, and yet I hope you will not condemn me, but upon good Deliberation. I confess they are not mingled with Discourse, for GOD desireth not to take Admonition or Information from our Reports: Neither are they interlarded with Meditations; for the Places of Scripture, which I have prefixed before every one, they will minister Matter for that Devotion: Neither have I made either of them very long, to draw them into a thousand Periods, (as Chrysostom saith) as if it were a goodly Work to multiply much Speech before GOD; but I made them somewhat brief, aiming at the Rule which our Lord and Saviour prescribed, saying, After this Manner pray ye; that is, (saith Chry-

A 6 sostom

xii P R E F A C E.

softom again) He appointed the Disciples to gather the Petitions of their Prayers into a short Sum. Wherefore if ye find them worthy of the Name of Prayers, so use them; if otherwise, yet take them as mean (I do not say main) Grounds, and poor Helps, to do Service here and there, in your deeper Meditations, when your Devotion arises to do the daily Sacrifice, with Liberty; but where I have been defective, I refer it to the Judicious to supply; and where I have offered any thing vain and offensive, I am content to admit of a godly Corrector. I speak to them that have Understanding; judge you what I say: And I shall pray unto the Holy One of Israel in Heaven, that your Inspiration may be heavenly, your Desires holy, and your Prayers here fervent and frequent; and there acceptable before the Throne of his Majesty, for the Relief of your Necessities, and for the setting forth of his Glory in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Yours in the Lord,

T. S.

The

THE CONTENTS
 OF THE Several PARTS.

1. Daniel's Devotions: Containing, Three Prayers every Day in the Week, three times a Day, with other Private Prayers for Morning and Evening; in Number 29.

2. Paul's Assembly: Containing, Prayers for divers Occasions and Necessities, general and particular; in Number 25.

3. David's Suit: Containing, Queen Elizabeth's Prayer, and other Prayers, in the Name of divers Parties of several Estates; in Number 22.

4. Moses's Song: Containing, Divers Sorts of Thanksgivings and Graces, in Prose and Verse.

PRAYERS

xiv CONTENTS.

PRAYERS accompanying the several Parts.

A threefold Paraphrase upon the Lord's Prayer.

Nine short Prayers, beginning with the Letters of the Name Elizabeth.

Two Prayers or Meditations upon the Life, Death, and Passion, of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

The ancient Prayer, called, O bountiful Jesu.

A Supplication of the Author for all.

PRAYERS added in this Impression.

1. In the Night upon our Waking.
2. Another when we cannot Sleep.
3. In the Time of Thunder and Lightning.
4. The Mariner's Prayer.
5. A Comprehensive Prayer.
6. A Prayer for any Time.

THE most absolute Prayer, and best Rule of all holy Petitions, is that which our Lord and Saviour taught his Disciples; a Prayer large for Matter, short for Phrase, and sweet for Order; which having paraphrased, (this as you see) I thought it not so good to insert it in this Bundle, as to place it here alone before them all as a Supplication, not appropriate to any Part, but appertaining, or giving Life to all, and fit to conclude every one.

A
P A R A P H R A S E
UPON THE Lord's P R A Y E R.

OUR FA- { By Right of Creation,
THER { Merit of Mercy, Gracious Provision.

Which art in { The Seat of thy Majesty, Heaven, { The Inheritance of thy Children,
The Kingdom of Bliss.

Hallowed be thy { By the Thoughts of our Name. { Hearts,
By the words of our Mouth
By the works of our Hands

Thy Kingdom { Of Grace, to inspire us, come. { Of Power, to defend us,
Of Glory, to crown us.

Thy

Thy Will be done { In Weal and Woe,
In Fulness and Want,
In Life and Death.

In Earth, as it is { In us as it is in thy Angels, in Heaven. { willingly, readily, faithfully, without Murmur, Let, or Deceit.

Give us this { For the Nourishing of our Day our daily { Bodies, Bread. { For the Feeding of our Souls,
For the Relief of all our Necessities.

And forgive us { Whereby Thou art dish-our Debts, { onoured,
Our Neighbour wronged,
Or Ourselves endangered.

As we forgive { That have hurt us in our our Debtors. { Bodies, Hindered us in our Goods,
Wronged us in our good Names.

And lead us { Of the wicked World, not into Temp- { The enticing Flesh, or tation, { The envious Devil.

But

upon the LORD'S PRAYER. xix

But deliver us from Evil: { Forgive what is past,
Remove what is present,
Prevent what is to come.

For thine is the Kingdom, Power and Glory, { To rule and govern all,
To command and do all,
In all, and by all, all in all.

Now and for ever. { At this present,
In this World,
In the World to come.

A M E N, { As thou sayest, so it is,
As thou promisest, so it shall be,
As we pray, so be it Lord.

PRAYERS,

THE JOURNAL OF THE

from law: But cannot be done without a change of what is the law.

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.

AMEN.

P R A Y E R S,

Beginning with the

LETTERS of the NAME

E L I Z A B E T H.

E.

EVery Day, O Almighty GOD, and Heavenly Father, will I pray unto thee, to have Mercy upon me, and to keep me in thy Grace, Favour, and Love. Every Day will I give Thanks unto thee, for thy gracious Redemption of my Body and Soul from Sin, Death, and Hell.

Every Day will I laud thy holy Name, O Holy Ghost, GOD's Spirit, Heart's Joy, Elect's Comforter; beseeching the Blessed Trinity, in sacred Unity, to replenish my Heart with all chari-

xxii P R A Y E R S.

charitable Desires, and heavenly Inspirations, necessary to Salvation. Amen.

L.

LAY too thy helping Hand, O Lord, strengthen the weak Condition of my Faith, and pour thine Oil of Grace into my wounded Heart, that I may be able to walk in the Ways of thy Commandments without Reproof, and receive Comforts in all Needs and Necessities.

I.

IT is Pity and Compassion alone, O Lord, which must cover mine Unworthiness, therefore renouncing all Merit in myself, I fly unto thee for Succour; leave me not, O Lord, but preserve me with thy Goodness, now and evermore. Amen.

Z.

ZEalous, O Lord, I am of thy Truth, wherefore, I pray thee sanctify my Heart, to a right Conversation in this World; direct me by thy Laws, that I never step beyond the Limits of my Duty,

P R A Y E R S. xxiii

Duty, and suffer me not to enter into any Action, which either may dishonour thee, or bring my Life into Infamy. Amen.

A.

ADmit me, O most merciful Lord, to thy gracious Favour: Many are the Dangers of this Life; and I have no Patron to defend me but thee. Heaven is thine; and the Earth is thine: Keep me on Earth, as one of thine; and bring me to Heaven, to reign with thee. Amen.

B.

Blessed Lord, I have sinned, but my Pardon is with thee. If I were as sinful as Mary Magdalen, as outrageous as the Prodigal Son, and as bashful to come near as the Publican, yet Jesus hath made Satisfaction for my Sins; therefore in Mercy forgive me now and evermore. Amen.

I

Enter

xxiv P R A Y E R S.

E.

ENter not into Judgment with a poor Creature, O Lord: Dust and Ashes is my State here; only I am created after thine own Image, for a better World: Destroy not then the Work of thine own Hands; but shew thy Mercy and Goodness unto me this Day, and for evermore. Amen.

T.

THink upon me, O Lord; thy Word never faileth; thy Compassions have no End; by the Virtue of the one, and the Substance of the other, purify me from all Iniquity, and lead me into all Truth, this Day, and evermore. Amen.

H.

HAve Mercy upon me, O Lord, accept my Prayers which I pour out before thee, and grant my Requests: Mercifully prosper the Things that I take in Hand; save me from mine Enemies; a blessed Life, and happy End good Lord send me. Amen.

SUP-

SUPPLICATIONS OF SAINTS.

PART I.

SUNDAY.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pfal. cxlv. 10. All thy Works praise thee, O Lord, and thy Saints shall bleſs thee.

Pfal. cxix. 170. O let my Supplication come before thee; deliver me according to thy Word.

LORD God Almighty, and ever-living Father, and thou well-beloved Son of the Father Jeſus Chriſt, with the Holy Ghoſt, Holy, Bleſſed, and Glorious Trinity, Eternal God, Lord of the Sabbath, and Fountain of all Wiſdom, I do not present these my Supplications before thee upon my own Righteousness, but in thy great Mercies. I trust in them truly, I trust in them only, without any other Plea, I trust in them always without Weariness: And therefore, I beseech you grant me merciful Audiences. Mercifully hear me, O Lord, mercifully hear me, O Lord God. First I extol thy infinite Goodness and Mercy, together with thy eternal Wisdom and Truth, that thou hast protected me all this Night past, and made me to rest and sleep so quietly and securely under the Shadow of thy Wings. And I beseech thee (from the Bottom of my Heart) to protect me this Day, with thy mighty Hands, from all Dangers both of Body and Soul.

P. B. 33

not

S.

Give thy holy Angels Charge over me, to keep me in all my Ways; drive away the evil Angel and deadly Enemy; and remove from me all Offences of this World. Mortify and kill in me all carnal Lusts, unlawful Pleasures, and evil affections, that they may have no Dominion over me, or reign in my mortal Body; and give me a contrite Heart to bewail my former Life; and let me find Comfort in thy Mercy, for the Remission of my Sins

Sanctify me (O Holy Trinity) this holy Day, with thy especial Grace, that I may honour thee as a Creator, love thee as a Redeemer, and expect thee as a Saviour; and that I may have modest Carriage in my Behaviour, true Devotion in my Prayers, and reverend Attention to hear thy holy Word; and so unlock the Ears of my Understanding, that I may observe, learn, and embrace such Things as are necessary for me, to the better Confirmation of my Faith in Christ Jesus, and the Salvation of my Soul by his Blood. Raise me, O Father, by the Power of thy Son's Resurrection, from Sin and Iniquity, and give me spiritual Rest, Peace, and Joy, in the Communion of Saints; that hereafter, when I shall leave this World, I may keep the everlasting Sabbath with thee in the Kingdom of Heaven.
that

Behold, O Lord, I knock at the Door of thy Mercy for all these Graces with all the Powers of my Strength, Soul, and Mind; beseeching thee to continue unto me the right Use of all the Powers and Faculties of the same, and to send thy Holy Spirit to bear witness to my Spirit that I am thy Child, and shall be Heir of thy Kingdom with Christ Jesus our Lord, and through his Merits; for whose Sake I beseech thee to grant all those Things that I have prayed for. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer for the Ministers of the Word.

O Lord Jesus, who hast commanded us to pray for Labourers to thy Harvest, we beseech thee send painful Ministers into thy Church. Endue them with such Wisdom and Speech as the Adversaries may not be able to gainsay. Open unto them the Door of Doctrine and Utterance, give them the Spirit of Boldness that they may faithfully dispense thy Mysteries, and speak thy Word free and boldly: Take away all Contentions and Differences from among them: Make them examples to those that believe in Soundness of Doctrine, and Pureness of Life. And because the Rule of our Life depends upon thy Word in their Mouths, bless them with all Graces fit for their Calling, that we may give Thanks unto thee for them, finding thy Blessing upon us in and by their holy Labours, and praise thy Name for evermore. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

Gen. xviii. 27. 30. Behold, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord! O let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak.

O Eternal God, and merciful Father, from the Bottom of my Heart I give thee continual Thanks, that of thy Mercy thou thou hast nourished me with thy Goodness, preserved me by thy Power, and governed me by thy Word and holy Spirit this Day, and and all this Week past; yea, and at all other Times of my Life hitherto. And I most humbly beseech thee, in the Merits of Christ Jesus my Saviour, not to respect my Unworthiness, but in his Grave to cover and bury all my Misdeeds, which I have either wittingly or ignorantly done; and, in particular, O Lord, those which in this Week past I have committed, in Thought, Word, or Deed, against thy Divine Majesty.

Water, O Lord, with the Dew of thy Grace, the Seed of thy holy Word, which I have received this Day, that with sound Judgment and godly Devotion, I may put in practice such Things as I know to be pleasing to thy Divine Majesty: And that my Heart being always obedient to thy Commandments, and the Fear of mine Enemies taken away from me, I may pass my Time in Peace and Holiness, through thy gracious Protection.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord, forgive the Evil that I committed, supply the Good which I have omitted, restore what I have lost, heal my Sores, cleanse my Filthiness, lighten my Darkness, and alter the whole State of my Mind, Dispositions, and Affections

fections, that nothing may be wanting to good Purpose in me.

O Lord stretch out thine Hand over me, and of thy wonted Goodness defend me this Night from all Evil. Keep me from all fearful and wicked Dreams, unprofitable Cares, vain Cogitations, and outward Violence. Preserve my Body from eternal Death, and my Soul from everlasting Damnation. Compass me about on every side with thy Grace, inwardly and outwardly, that when I shall either take due Care for the Things of this Life, or carefully seek for those Things which appertain to the Kingdom of Heaven, I may hear the Voice of the holy Spirit sounding in my Heart from the Mouth of thy Apostle, My God shall fulfil all your Necessities, through his Riches, with Glory in Jesus Christ. Grant, O Lord, these and all other Graces meet for me, even for Jesus Christ his Sake, my only Lord and Saviour. In whose Name I further pray unto thee, saying the Prayer which he in his Gospel hath taught us, Our Father, &c.

MON.

M O N D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pfal. lxvi. 20. Blessed be God who hath not turned away my Prayer, nor his Mercy from me.

O Heavenly Father, and Almighty God, who beyond all Measure hast unlocked the Treasure of thy Favour and Blessing unto me, from time to time; I most heartily thank thee for the sweet Sleep and comfortable Rest which I have taken this Night through thy gracious Preservation of me. And now, O Lord, I consecrate my Soul and Body to thy Service this Day again, and ever hereafter, desiring that my Prayer, early now this Morning, may have Access unto thee.

O Lord I pray thee bless, preserve, and keep me this Day, by thy Power, from Sin, Shame, and all Evil, and so direct me with thy Grace, that all my Thoughts, Words, and Works, may please thee. Stand, I beseech thee, between me and mine Enemies, bodily and ghostly; especially Satan, and all his Assaults and Snares that he setteth for me daily. And as thou hast now raised up my Body from a sound and heavy Sleep, so deliver my Soul from the dead Sleep of Sin, and the Darkness of this World. Help, O Lord, thy Creature, which dependeth upon thy Providence only.

O Lord Jesus have mercy upon me, a miserable Sinner; pardon and forgive all my Sins, Negligences, and Ignorances. Remember not my Obstinacies, and have Compassion upon mine Infirmities. Set thy holy Passion, Cross, and Death, between thy Judgment and my Soul's Danger, both now and at the Hour of Death.

Of thy Mercy, O Lord, strengthen my Weakness, and mortify my corrupt Nature, from inclining to Swearing, Wantonness, Lying, or any Sin whatsoever: And grant that I may so walk in thy Ways by the Light of thy holy Word, that no worldly Vanity bewitch me to sell myself to work Wickedness, but that I may, in a special Manner, strive against those Sins that my corrupt Nature is prone unto.

O holy Father, grant me a sound Mind, and an upright Heart, and the right Use of my Senses continually, that knowing what I should do, and practising what I know, I may worthily lament the Wickedness of my Life, and ever, upon my unfeigned Repentance, feel thy Comforts rejoicing my Soul, and never forget the Desire of the Life to come, but diligently fix my Heart and Affections on heavenly Things. O Lord, bless me in all the Passages sages of this Pilgrimage: Further my Business, that I may truly walk without Sin, and safely work without Danger, in that Vocation whereunto thou hast called me in this Life; and after Death, O Lord, restore my Body and Soul to Life eternal. Hear my Prayer, O Lord GOD, for Jesus Christ his Sake, my only Saviour. Amen.

Part I. of SAINTS.

9

NOON.

A Prayer to GOD the Father.

O Merciful GOD, and loving Father, on whose Providence we depend for all our Necessaries, we thank thee for our royal Creation after thine own Image, and all other Graces, now and ever bestowed upon us. Give us Grace, we pray thee, so to live as becometh thy Children, in all Holiness and Righteousness. Incline our Hearts to thy Law, and not to Covetousness. Open the Eyes of our Understandings, that we may behold the secret Things of thy Law. Make us fruitful in all good Works. Forgive us our Sins, and wash us in the Blood of thy Son. Cleanse our Hearts, and renew our Minds to thy holy Will. Prosper the Works of our Hands, and bring us safely from all Dangers to the End of this Day, for Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

B 5

EVEN-

EVENING PRAYER.

Psal. lv. 17. Evening, and Morning, and at Noon, will I pray and cry aloud, and he shall hear me.

ALmighty God, Lord of Heaven and Earth, which givest infinite Occasion unto every Creature to praise thy holy Name; I, who have been Partaker not of the least of thy Mercies, am ready, with the holy Prophet that mine Eyes may prevent the Night Watches: And I repair unto thee now again, when the Day is past intreating thee to accept this mine Evening Sacrifice of Praise and Thanks for the Depth of thy Goodness, which I am not able to express; and the Sea of thy Mercies which have overflowed to me in a good and comfortable Measure this Day, to my great Comfort. Season, O Lord, my Senses, inward and outward, with the Salt of thy Grace, that with a sanctified Heart I may make a godly Use of all those good Things which I have heard, seen, or read this Day in thy sacred Word. And farther, lighten mine Eyes, that I sleep not in Death, nor walk in Darknes, spiritual or corporal, to endanger either Body or Soul.

Yet, O Lord, I beseech thee, let mine Eyes sleep and enjoy that moderate Recreation and Refreshing which thou hast appointed for the wearisome Condition of my weak Body; but let my Soul continually watch unto thee, to attend thy coming, that, when my Sleep hath not been unmeasurable (to please excessively the Ease of my Flesh,) I may thereby be the better disposed to thy Service to morrow, to such Duties as thou hast or shalt call me unto, and in all the Ways that I shall walk, to set forth thy Glory in them.

Preserve me, O Lord, from all Dangers that walk in the Night, and keep me from all the Temptations and Suggestions of him that is the Prince of Darkness. Forgive me the Sins and Offences which I have committed this Day, in Thought, Word, and Deed, either against thee or my Neighbour. Give me Grace to water my Couch with the Tears of true and unfeigned Repentance for all my former Sins, and grant that I may so pass the Residue of my Life, as that in Regard of thy Justice I may retain a holy Fear, to stand always in Awe of thee; and in Regard of thy Mercy, I may conceive sure Hope, never to despair or distrust in thee.

O Lord, keep me this Night both in Body and Soul, that I may, with the next Light, joyfully rise again, be thankful unto thee, and carefully walk in my Vocation and Calling, to the Glory of thy holy Name, and the Commodity of my Neighbour, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

T U E S D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pfal. xc. 14. O satisfy us early with thy Mercy, that we may rejoyce and be glad in thee all our Days.

O Blessed Lord God, great in Power, fearful in Judgment, and rich in Mercy; which bindest, and no Man looseth, and loosest, and no Man bindeth; I yield thee most humble and hearty Thanks, for that of thy fatherly Goodness thou hast vouchsafed me this Night's Sleep in Peace and Rest; and again loosing the Bonds wherewith I was tied, hast given me Power to see this Morning Light. Now, O Lord, (I beseech thee) pour upon me this Day the heavenly Dew of thy comfortable Blessing, that through the Operation of thy gracious Beams, I, that am a poor Tree, weak and barren in myself, may bud forth and bear the Fruits of true Faith in my Life and Con-

Conversation. Continue this Goodness and Mercy towards me, and by thy Power raise me from the deep Sleep of all Unrighteousness; mortify and subdue them by thy Spirit, that they may not have any Dominion over me; and cloath me with the Armour of Light, that I may walk honestly as in the Day, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present World.

Grant me, O Lord, the true Understanding and Knowledge of thy Word, which is the Glass of thy Will. Increase in me all godly Desires, together with true Contrition of Heart, that I may unfeignedly despise the Pleasures of this World, and with hearty Repentance be converted unto thee: Send thy holy Angels to guide me, and keep me in all thy Ways, and Prosper the Work of my Hands, that I never fail in my Vocation to do some Good to all Men, and eschew (if it be possible) all Evil, and the Occasions and Appearances thereof.

O Lord, I beseech thee, preserve and keep my Heart sound and upright, that I be never corrupted by Prosperity, nor cast down by Adversity, nor be too fearful of Judgments, nor too bold upon thy Mercy. But grant me Grace, O merciful Lord, that I may apprehend all Things that come from thee with a religious contented Mind and in the End of my Days, by a lively Faith

Faith, may joyfully arrive in the Land of Promise, the Kingdom of Heaven, through the Merits of Jesus Christ, my only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer to GOD the Son.

O Blessed Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the eternal GOD, blessed be thy Name for our Redemption; great was thy Love; sore was thy Passion. Print in our Minds, we beseech thee, the continual Memory thereof, that we may love thee, which so loved us; and evermore praise thee that hast bought us at so dear a Price. Reject not our Prayers which we offer to be presented to thy Father, but mercifully help us, and heal all our Infirmities; increase our Faith, and teach us Obedience, forgive our Offences, and hide us in and by thy Wounds, from thy Father's just Wrath. Make good thy Promises unto us for the World to come, and enable us with thy Grace for the Performance of all thy Commandments. Prosper, O Lord, our Handy-work, and bring us safely to the End of this Day, for thy Truth, and for thy Name's sake. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

Pfal. cxlvi. 5. Happy is he that bath the GOD of Jacob for his Help, whose Hope is in the LORD his GOD.

O Most holy Father, and my gracious GOD, which givest unto all sorts of Men the chearful Light of the Day, that by thine Assistance, and in thy fear, they may follow their honest Vocations, and likewise sendest the silent Night, that then they may rest their wearied Limbs and busied Minds, and so return their due Thanks for thy Goodness; I, a sinful Creature, do heartily laud and praise thee for the total Sum of all thy Mercies, whereof
I have been this Day a Partaker.

O Lord, I am vile, look not upon my Unworthiness, Folly, and Wickedness, but appease thy Anger justly conceived against me, and forgive what hath been amiss in me this Day, or at any other Time, even for his Sake who is thy well-beloved Son, and my dear Advocate.

Root up, O Lord, the Thorns of mine Inclinations and Affections, and in their Place make the Fruits of Virtue to spring;
in flame my Heart with the Desire of heavenly Love, that I may keep thy Commandments with Zeal as hot as Fire, loving thee above

above all Things and my Neighbour as myself.

Give me Grace, O Lord, to serve thee in true Faith, Fear, and Holiness, all the Days of my Life; and to overcome my mortal Enemies, the Desire of the World, the Pleasures of the Flesh, and the Suggestions of the wicked Spirit, remembering my Promise made unto thee in Baptism, for the Performance whereof I depend only upon thy holy Spirit.

O God of Light, let thine Angels pitch their Tents round about this House for our Defence, now in the Time of this Darkness and grant this Night's Sleep may be quiet unto me, without Grief or Trouble. Preserve me and mine, both in Body and Soul, from all Dangers and Offences, which may come either by foolish Dreams, noisome Spirits, or Uncleanneſs of corrupt Nature. Waken me again, O Lord, in due Time, and let me behold the Light of the next Day to my Comfort; prepare my Heart and Mind for thy Service every Day in all Truth and Sincerity, that when I have run the Race of this Life, thou mayest be pleased to call me to be Partaker of a better, that so I may live and reign with thee evermore, through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

WED-

W E D N E S D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pfal. cxliiii. 8. Cause me to bear thy loving Kindness in the Morning, for in thee do I trust ; shew me the Way wherein I shall walk, for I lift my Soul unto thee.

O Blessed God, and merciful Father, the never going down Sun of the World which bringeth, nourisheth, refresheth, and reneweth all Things both in Heaven and Earth : I thy poor Creature most humbly thank thee, that thou hast preserved me in this last Darknes, and every Night and Day hitherto, under thy Protection, suffering me to live unto this present Hour ; that thou hast succoured and defended me in all my Needs and Necessities, and hast provided so graciously and mercifully for me. Now I beseech thee, Lord, do not abridge the Hand of thy Mercy toward me, but let the Spring of thy Grace, flowing from the Sanctuary of thy Goodness, arise to all Parts of my Body and Soul in such Proportion, as may be for thy Glory and my Comfort.

Mortify, O my God, all the corrupt Affections that are in me ; cleanse me from my secret Faults, and pardon the innumerable able Sins which I have committed. Fill me this Day with thy Grace, that I may not spend it, but to the Honour of thy Name. Set a Watch before the Door of my Mouth, and order the course of my Lips, that I may utter nothing unadvisedly, either before thee or Men; keep my Senses within their Limits; set my Heart in a new Frame of Obedience, and keep it in the same; direct my Will in that which is good, and order my Judgment for the right Accomplishment of those Things that appertain to my Vocation.

O Lord, defend me from all Shame and Disgrace of Life; shield me from all Violence and Force of Enemies, and guide me safely through all perilous and dangerous Ways. Make me as thy Spouse inwardly and outwardly prepared and adorned by Grace, that I may be presented a pure Virgin unto Christ. Display upon me the Banners of thy Love; set thine Eye upon me for Good, and not for Evil, that with the Eye of Faith I may behold and see the Cross of Christ, and his sacred Wounds, the comfortable Price of my Redemption, and may have such fast footing in this Christian Warfare, that nothing may make me yield to the Temptation of the Devil. O Lord, so strengthen me with thy Hand, and furnish me with thy Grace, in this Vale of Misery, that all the Members of my Body may

follow the Direction of my Heart, and my Heart being sincerely knit unto thee, I may wholly serve thee in Holiness and Righteousness, all the Days of my Life; for Jesus Christ his Sake, my only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost.

O Holy Spirit, the Author and Giver of Life, who hast guided me thus far this Day, and guarded me from manifold Evils; I praise thee, I bless thee, I glorify thee, for thy great Mercy; continue thy Goodness towards me, I beseech thee, though I deserve it not; inspire my Mind with holy Motions, convert me from Evil, confirm me in all that is good.

Comfort me, thou Comforter, when I shall have most need. Clear the Storm of Temptation, and inflame the Coldness of my Zeal with the Fire of thy holy Spirit, and of the Love wrought in the People thereby. Lead me into all Truth, and reclaim me when I go astray. O prosper the Work of my Hands; bring me safely from all Dangers to the End of this Day, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

EVEN-

EVENING PRAYER.

*With-hold not thy tender Mercies from me.
O Lord, let thy loving Kindness and Truth preserve me.*

O Lord God, thou who art my Love, my Life, the Length and Strength of my Days, I most heartily thank thee for keeping me this Day from manifold Dangers both of Soul and Body, which might justly have fallen upon me. Now I humbly beseech thee, bring not into Judgment what I have done amiss this Day, but mercifully pardon the Escapes and Offences of my frail Nature. Forgive and forget, O Lord, all mine idle and vain Words, and impute not my Foolishness unto me. Remit unto me all my Aberrations and going astray from thy Law. Destroy in me the Kingdom of Sin, the Power of Satan, the Desires of the World, and the vain Delights of the Flesh.

Lord into thy Hands I commend myself even my Soul and Body, this Night and ever; lighten my Darknes that I sleep not in Death, and defend me, that no Evil happen unto me, but that by thy Blessing I may rest safely.

Comfort me, Lord, in all those Things wherein I have been any-ways dismayed this Day. Take not thy holy Spirit from me,
but

but continue the Motions thereof in my Heart; and make me careful to use all good Means to cherish and stir them up; that when as the Tempter shall come with his Assaults, I may be furnished with the Shield of Faith to quench his fiery Darts.

Strengthen my Weakness, and grant that this Night's Sleep may be sweet and healthful to my Body, and a profitable Memorial of that Sleep which, at my last End, in that great Night, shall make a Separation between my Body and Soul.

Let always thine unspeakable Mercy preserve me, thy endless Sweetness rejoice me, thy heavenly Truth strengthen me, thy Knowledge embolden me, and thy Goodness keep me, now and for evermore, from mine Enemies visible and invisible, that I may awake in the Morning in perfect Sense and good Health, and for the same be thankful unto thee, and carefully betake to my Vocation and Calling, for Jesus Christ's Sake, my only Saviour. Amen.

THURS.

T H U R S D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pfal. cxlv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in Truth.

O Lord God, who art the Light which no Man can attain unto, and yet lightenest every one that cometh into the World, mercifully driving away the Darkneses of the Night, and Shadow of Death. I praise thy holy Name and thank thee most humbly, that thou hast vouchsafed me the Favour to pass this Night in such a comfortable Rest, and to be brought again safe and sound into the Morning Light. Now, I beseech thee, by the Mystery of thy holy Incarnation, and the blessed Nativity of thy Son Jesus Christ (the thrice happy Day-star that appeared to the World) let thy Mercy this Day arise upon me, and let the bright Beams of thy Light shine into my Heart, that I be not transported either through the Corruption of Nature, or Power of Darkness, to spend this Day after mine own Mind and Pleasure, but that I may carefully follow the heavenly Light of thy Word to perform thy blessed Will.

Increase in me, O Lord, the Gifts of Faith and Hope, that I may believe in thee
and

and thy Promises made in Christ, and diligently labour to find in my Soul those Graces to which thou hast annexed thy Promises ; and grant that neither by mine own Negligence, nor the Infirmary of the Flesh, nor the Grievousness of Temptations, I be driven away from a sure Confidence of a gracious Acceptance with thee, in the Merit of his sacred Blood. Disperse the thick Mists and Clouds of my sinful Life, which blemish my Soul, and darken my Understanding ; and wash away all such Pollutions in the Blood of his Passion, that I may be acknowledged for one of thine, when I come unto thee in my Need. Give me a Will to work duly and truly in my Vocation this Day without Idleness, and order my Skill with the Rule of thy Wisdom, that I be not unfaithful. Bless my Body and Soul, that no Evil or Harm come unto them ; and keep my Memory and Senses, that they pass not the Limits of that Understanding and Reason wherewith thou hast endued me.

O Lord lighten my Mind to look upon good Things only ; inflame my Heart with a Love of them : Conduct me by thy Grace to attain them, that as thou hast now awakened my Body from Sleep, so my Soul may daily be raised from the Slumber of Sin and Darkness of this World, and they both being
Com-

Companions and Fellows in the Ways of Godliness, may be Partakers of everlasting Life, at the latter Day ; through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer for Sobriety.

O Lord God, who hast commanded us to be sober, direct my Paths in the right Way of Sobriety, spiritual and corporal ; suffer me not this Day, nor any other, to abuse thy good Creatures, or turn thy Grace into Wantonness ; let me not be overcome with Surfeiting and Drunkenness, but avoid all Superfluity, using all Temperance and Moderation both in Meats and Drinks. Grant me a staid Mind, a grave and sober Disposition, and an humble and lowly Conceit of myself : Bless me that I may be wise, but to Sobriety ; that I may live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present World, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psal. cxlv. 9. The Lord is good to all, and his tender Mercies are over all his Works.

O Lord God, my most loving and merciful Father, great in Mercy, and constant in Truth, I do acknowledge my bounden
den

den Duty of Thankfulness, unto thee, for thy manifold Graces and Benefits imparted to me this Day. Though I be unable to recount them and far more unworthy to be Partaker of them, nevertheless, in full Assurance and Confidence of thy Love to me in Christ Jesus, I presume to come unto thee and now again commit into thy Hands this Night my Soul and Body, and all my Senses, my Thoughts, Affections, Words, and Deeds, all within me, and all without me, my Faith and my Continuance in the same; beseeching thee of thy Mercy, to keep me and them Day and Night, blameless and undefiled against the Day of thy Coming.

Lord, pardon, I pray thee, and forgive me all the Sins which this Day I have either wretchedly effected, or wickedly imagined against thine Honour, and the Good of my Neighbour: Lay not the Faults and Frailties of my younger Years unto my Charge; O Lord, forget them; O Lord, forgive them: And for the better Confirmation of thy gracious Pardon, I humbly intreat thee, O Lord, to annex unto thy Grant, the Power of thy Grace to attend upon me, that I may not do mine own Will, but thine, in eschewing Evil and doing Good. Strike my Heart, Lord, with thy Fear, that in fearing thee, I may labour to escape those Things which thou threatenest, and give me the Comfort of thy Salvation, that in loving thee, I may be thought worthy to obtain those Things which thou hast promised. Be favourable unto me, O Lord, that I may this Night quietly take my Rest under the Shadow of thy Wings, void of all Fear, spiritual Darkneſs, Danger, and Deſpair; and when the dark End of this mortal Life, like the Shutting in of this Day, ſhall come, grant me, O Lord, a watchful Heart, willingly diſpoſed, and thoroughly enabled with thy Grace to abandon theſe tranſitory Nights and Days, and depart hence in the Peace of a good Conſcience, into thine everlaſting Reſt, through Jeſus Chriſt, our only Saviour and Redeemer, in whoſe Name I farther pray unto thee, ſaying that Form of Prayer that he hath taught us,

C

that

Our Father, &c.

F R I D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Pſal. lxxiii. 25. Whom have I in Heaven but thee? And there is none upon Earth that I deſire beſides thee.

O Almighty Lord, my mighty Creator, and my God, I, thine unworthy Servant, give thee moſt humble and hearty Thanks for thy gracious Protection and Pre-

Preservation of me in Health, Wealth, and Safety, this Night past, and all other Times. And now, I beseech thee, so direct me by thy holy Spirit, that I may this Day live and walk according to thy good Will and Pleasure, in all harmless Manner, to the Profit and Good of my Neighbours, and in all Holiness and Righteousness, for thy Glory.

Lighten my Mind, O Lord, by the true Understanding of thy holy Word, that without all Vanity, or Curiosity, I may seek to know what is that good, perfect, and acceptable Will, and may also unfeignedly express what I know in my Life and Conversation.

O Lord, I confess and acknowledge all the Sins which I have committed against thy Law; but on bended knees I beseech thee, enter not into Judgment with thy Servant for them, but wipe them away in thy Son's Blood. Bless my Judgment and all my Senses, that no sudden Motions make me conceive my Grief so far, as to forfeit my reasonable Understanding; neither that I be so blinded in Understanding, as to misconceive any Part of thy Truth, or maintain, or hold any Error, or erroneous Fancy. Send, O Lord, thy Blessing upon all my Labours and Travels in this World, that I may have wherewithal to relieve my Necessities upon all Occasions. Endue me with thy Fear, give me an humble Mind, godly Sorrow, and a good Conscience, that I may carry an honest and upright Meaning to deal justly and truly with all Men.

O Lord, temper and order all Things unto me in such a peaceable Course, that I may never be farther tempted, than thou wilt make me able to bear; and so work for me, O my God, as may be most to thy Glory, and my Comfort. Give me Patience in all Provocations and Trials, and Faith in all Temptations; and so arm me with thy Grace and Assistance, that I may walk warily and wisely this Day and all the Days of my Life, for Jesus Christ his Sake, mine only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer for Chastity.

ALmighty Lord, who knowest that in our Flesh dwelleth no Good, and yet hast vouchsafed to make our Bodies the Temples of the Holy Ghost, give me Grace that I may always crucify the Flesh, with all the inordinate Affections and Desires thereof, and bring it into Subjection unto the Spirit. Quench the Flames of carnal Motions in me; abate the Heat of foul Lust, and let me not be led away by the Inticement of any wanton Company. I know my Members to be the Members of Christ, and therefore sanctify me, me, I beseech thee, that whether I live in the State of Matrimony, or a single Life, I may avoid all Uncleanneſs, and always poſſeſs my Veſſel, not in the Luſt of Concu- piſcence, but in Holineſs and Honour, that it may be a Temple for thyſelf to delight and dwell in, for Jeſus Sake. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

Pſal. lxxiii. 28. It is good for me to draw near unto God; I have put my Trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy Works.

O Eternal God, my merciful and loving Father, in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord, I render unto thy Majeſty due Praise and Thanks for thy fatherly Goodneſs, in protecting me this Day from many Dangers and Damages, which might juſtly have happened unto me, if thou ſhouldeſt ſtrictly have obſerved what I have deſerved; and now, I beſeech thee, to protect and keep me this Night alſo; preſerve me and mine in thy fatherly Providence, and all thoſe that depend upon me. Have Mercy upon me, O God, have Mercy upon me, and of thy wonted Goodneſs forgive me all my Tranſgreſſions, eſpecially thoſe which I have committed this Day againſt thy ſacred Majeſty; ſhew me the Light of thy Countenance, and let me find Comfort in the Remorse of Conscience.
C 3 tenance,

Bless me, O Lord, and water me with the Dew of thy Blessings, and let the Drops of thy Son's Blood shed for my Sins (and yet crying for thy Mercy) distil into my Heart by a lively Faith, for the Comfort of my Soul, and the Amendment of my Life.

I beseech thee, O Lord, take from me all Manner of Darknes, Misbelief, Infidelity, carnal Lusts, and Affections, and so strengthen me with thy Grace, that the Bark of my weak Faith sink not through the Storms of Satan's Temptation, nor my Hope be overturned through the Weight of my Unworthiness, nor any of thy good Graces extinguished or blemished, by the Ways of a wicked Conversation. Enter thy Judgments into the Tables of my Heart, that I may be content to spare my ordinary Sleep, to muse of all thy Commandments, and that I may be more earnest upon the Meditation of thy sacred Word, than the Kings of the Nations have been to turn over their Records in the Night Season. Be mindful of me, when I happen to forget myself, and think upon me, O Lord, sleeping and waking.

Keep me, O Lord, this Night, preserve even me and mine, that we be neither disquieted by Dreams, nor surprised by sudden Violence, nor affrighted by any Terror;

Terror; but grant us this Freedom and Liberty, that we may lie down in Peace and Rest, and rise up again, in due Time, safely, to the Honour and Glory of thy Name, and the Managing of our worldly Business, in thy Fear, through Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

S A T U R D A Y.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psal. xlii. 8. The Lord will command his loving Kindness in the Day Time, and in the Night-Season his Song shall be with me, and my Prayer unto the GOD of my Life.

O Immortal and Everlasting God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, I, thine unworthy Servant, beseech thee to accept this my Morning Sacrifice of Praise and Thanks due unto thee alone, for protecting me, with thy mighty Hand, from the Fears and Dangers of this Night past, and refreshing my weary Body with natural and kindly Rest, and hereunto, I humbly intreat thee, to join thy further Grace for the rousing up of my sluggish and slothful Nature, from Sin and Evil, that I may walk in thy Commandments, with all Chearfulness, this Day and evermore, Pardon, O Lord, I beseech thee, all forepast Evils, Abominations of my Life and Conversation: Cut off the Roots, Boughs, Leaves, and Fruit of the evil Tree of my corrupt Heart; put away the inward Doubtings, and Denying of thy Providence, with all those gross and outward Sins which I have committed, and do daily affect and effect against thee, and give me a sure Hope of thy gracious Pardon and everlasting Life, that always while I am in this World, I may have the Taste and Feeling of it in my Heart.

Give me Grace, O Lord, to shun and to avoid all those Things which thou either hatest or hast no Pleasure in. Take from me a proud Look, and a deceitful Tongue, bloody Hands, and a Heart any ways given to wicked Imaginations. Keep me this Day from all Perils, that may come either unto my Soul or Body, either by Satan himself, or any of his Ministers: Bless my Senses and Understanding, that in all Things I may hear and speak Reason; and suffer me not, I beseech thee, to speak, think, or do any Thing this Day, but that which may please thee, be answerable to my Vocation, and tend unto the Advancement of thy Glory, and the Health of my Soul.

O Lord, I pray thee send thy Blessing, upon all my Labours, and give me a willing

ing Mind to help them that have Need, according to my Ability; and so prepare my Heart in all my Business, that I may always begin it in thy Name, and go forward in thy Fear, and finish it in thy Blessing, that whatsoever I shall do, it may prosper. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our only Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

NOON.

A Prayer for Patience.

O GOD, who art the GOD of Patience, and givest Consolations to them that be patient, stay my unbridled Nature this Day, and ever, from all Discontentedness of Mind, Doubtings, Fears, Murmurings, and furious Actions. Give me Grace, to take in good Part, whatsoever shall befall me, and let my Heart acknowledge it to be the Lord's Doing, to come from thy Providence, and not by Chance. Quiet my Soul in the manifold Disquietings of this World, and open mine Eyes when any Need will be, that I may see Help in thee. Prevent all Evil that may befall me, and turn all Things to the best for my Good in thee. Grant me Patience, and thy Will to me be done in Jesus Christ, my only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

Pfal. lxxxviii. 1, 2. O Lord GOD of my Salvation, I have cried Day and Night before thee. Let my Prayer come before thee, incline thine Ear unto my Cry.

Blessing, and Glory, and Wisdom, and Thanksgiving, and Honour, and Power, and Might, be unto thee, O Lord, most high and immortal God, for thy gracious Goodness and Mercy extended to me this Day and always ; notwithstanding all my Wickednesses which cry daily against me, and mine Enemies that would swallow me up. I beseech thee, O Lord, be still my God and my Lord, and continue thy gracious and merciful Favour unto me. Forgive me all that is past, even all the Evil that I have done or thought ; and grant that I may hereafter serve and please thee in Holiness and Newness of Life. Be thou my Shield and Defence against the Suggestions, Illusions, and Temptations of Satan, against all the Allurements and Baits of the Flesh, with all Alterations, Provocations, Changes, and Chances of the World : Sanctify me with thy Grace, that I may keep my Body undefiled as the Temple of the Holy Ghost, and that my Soul may be defended, cherished, and tendered dered as the Apple of thine Eye, from all the Pollutions of sinful Lusts.

O good God, the Sun is gone down, the Web of this Day is almost spun, and the Night is at hand: Bless me, I beseech thee, this Night, and take me into thy Custody; save me waking, keep me sleeping, that I may both sleep and wake in Peace and Safety. Let the Shadow of thy Wings be my Covert, the Holy Ghost my Comfort, and thy Holy Name my Rock and Defence against all Evil, Fear, Damage, or Danger which may overtake me this Night, or any other Time. Prepare me, O Lord, for the Day following, the holy Sabbath, the hallowed Day of thy Rest, and my great Duty; and then so unlock the Mysteries of thy holy Word to me, that I may therein see the Things of thy glorious Majesty; learn the Lessons of my own Duty, and rightly understand the Certainty of my Mortality.

Grant me, O Lord, such Grace, as I may make a right Use of all Things, that the Hearing of thy holy Word, and the good Example of thy Servant's agreeing with the Rule of thy Law, may be both as a Bridle to restrain me from Sin, and a Spur to set me forward to Holiness of Life and Conversation in this World. O Lord grant me these and all other good Things, even for Jesus Christ his Sake, my only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Another Prayer to be said in the Night upon our awaking.

Psal. cxxix. 62. At Midnight I will rise to give Thanks unto thee, because of thy righteous Judgments.

O Lord Jesus, who to deliver the holy Apostle St. Peter from the Fury of a cruel Tyrant, didst by an Angel awake him in the Dead of the Night, and hast now awaked me thy poor Servant long before the Day-break ; I bleſs thee, and with all humble Thanks praise thee for that Portion of comfortable Rest, which thou hast given me from my Downlying, to this present Hour ; beseeching thee to forgive and forget my Omission of such Duties as I should have performed before I fell asleep.

O blessed Saviour, who didst watch and pray when thy Disciples were asleep, and spentest many Nights in Prayer for my Sake, pardon my Forgetfulness, Drowsiness, and Dulness in heavenly Matters ; mine idle Dreams, and wandering Thoughts in Prayer and Meditation ; and pray to thy Father and my God, thine by Nature, mine

mine by his Grace and thine, that none of these Things be laid to my Charge.

Keep me in this Interim from all evil and vain Cogitations; from Temptations of the Enemy, and ungodly Designs; that so long as I shall be awake, I may as thy holy Servants Paul and Silas did, at Midnight meditate upon thy sacred Law, and all holy Things. Amen.

Another Prayer to be said when we cannot sleep.

O Lord God, by whose Ordinance King Abasuerus one Night could not sleep in his own Bed; and yet, through thy gracious Providence, thy Apostle St. Peter slept quietly, though guarded and chained in Prison. I beseech thee to behold how my Sleep is broken, so that I cannot take my natural Rest kindly, and to have Compassion upon my weak Constitution, which yet desireth farther Nourishment, Lord let no Business, Cares, or Fears, trouble my Head any longer at this Time, but to settle my Brain in this Quiet of the Night, that I may lay me down in Peace, and take my Rest, my Body receiving its due Refreshing, but my Mind continually watching unto thee, for Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

A Prayer for the Morning.

O Lord God, most mighty and merciful Father, I, thine unworthy Creature and Servant, acknowledge my own Vileness, natural Corruption, and abominable Sins many times, and diverse Ways committed against thee; so that I am not worthy to come near thy Sanctuary, or to approach the uttermost Limits of the Place where thine Honour dwelleth. Yet I beseech thee, for his Sake in whom thou art so well pleased, my Lord Jesus Christ, vouchsafe to admit me to render thee my bounden Thanks, for thy manifold Mercies extended towards me this Night past, and all other Times of my Life; for my Rest, my Sleep, my Food, and Raiment; my Health, Peace, and Liberty, and the Hope of a better Life, in the Merits of thy Son's bitter Passion. And dear Father, I beseech thee to continue thy merciful Favour unto me this Day, and ever hereafter. Forgive me all mine Unthankfulness, Unkindness, and Profaneness towards thee, thy Word, and Service, or towards my Neighbour. Set all my Sins over to that Reckoning which thy Son Jesus Christ, my Lord, hath made up for them upon his Cross. Never lay any of them to my Charge, but freely forgive and forget all.

O

O Lord, strike my Heart with thy Rod, that I may always be furnished with a true and unfeigned Repentance; that I may not be blind in my Sins to delight in them, or to think that thou wilt not respect my Untowardness, but that I may be weary of them, grieve for them, and by all Means possible strive to attain a true Mortification of the Flesh, and so to live holy, justly, and soberly in this present World.

O Good God, I humbly intreat thee, leave me not to myself, mine own Lust and Desires, but assist me with thy Grace to hearken unto thee and thy Word, and to pass my Time in Fear and Trembling, as an obedient Child of so good a Father.

Bless me, Lord, this Day, and prosper all that I shall take in Hand; let me have all my Directions from thy Will, and the Success from thy merciful Hand. Give me a competent Stay for the Maintenance of this mortal Life. Continue my Food, Raiment, Health, Peace, and Liberty, that I may with a quiet Mind and thankful Heart, pass my Time in this Vale of Misery, doing Good to all Men, after mine Ability, without Disgrace to myself or Harm to any one.

Grant these good Things, most merciful Father, and all other needful Graces, not only unto me, but unto all thy dear Children

Children in the World, to the Good of our Souls and Bodies, for Jesus Christ his Sake; in whose Name I farther call upon thee, as he hath taught us in his Gospel, saying,
Our Father, &c.

A Prayer for the Evening.

O Eternal God, and most merciful Father, I do confess against myself, that my Heart and Hands are full of all Filthiness and Sins whatsoever; and I am altogether unworthy to speak unto thee, or to come near to thy Presence: Nevertheless being so much bound unto thee, as this Day past, and all other Times of my Life do witness, I offer unto thy Majesty, by the Hand of Jesus Christ my Mediator my humble Duty of Praise and Thanksgiving for my Election, Creation, Redemption, Vocation, and Sanctification, with all other good Graces appertaining to this Life, or that which is to come.

And namely, O Lord, my Tongue and Lips shall glorify thee, sitting above the Cherubim, for preserving me this Day past from so many Miseries and Casualties, whereunto I might justly have fallen, if thou wouldest have entered into Judgment with me. But, O Lord, thou art merciful, and passest by mine Offences, to win me by thy long Sufferance: I beseech thee make

make me thankful for thy Mercies, ready and willing to make a good Use of thy most gracious Forbearance, and careful to do thy Will, with all Conscience and Constancy.

O Lord, pardon and forgive me all my Sins, grant me every Day more and more the Sight and Feeling of them, with hearty Sorrow and unfeigned Repentance for the same. Give me Grace to believe all the sweet Promises that thou hast made unto me in Christ Jesus, both for the Remission of my Sins, and the Hope of a better Life; strengthen me from above, with thy mighty Hand, to walk in every good Way without Fear, and to bring forth the Fruit of a true and lively Faith in my Life and Conversation, all the Days of my Pilgrimage here.

Arm me, O Lord, with thy Grace and holy Spirit, against all the common Corruptions of the World, the Temptations of the Devil, and the Allurements of the Flesh, and settle my Mind to the continual Exercise of devout Prayer, with the Hearing of thy sacred Word, watching for thy Coming, both public and private.

Continue thy Goodness towards me, in providing for me such Things as are necessary for the Maintenance of this present Life; and bless the same under my Hand, that the little which I have by thy Goodness ness may be increased, and the Increase may serve as well to furnish my necessary Uses as to minister unto the Necessities of others, according to my Ability.

Keep me, Lord, this Night from all Evils, which may happen either unto my Body, or to my Soul: Extend thy Goodness towards all those that depend upon me, or upon them. Give me quiet Sleep and Rest, and when I shall awake, let my Thought and Cogitations be holy Meditations on thee and thy Law. Bless me, O Lord, all the Nights and Days of my Life, and at the End thereof send me a blessed Departure, and afterwards a joyful Resurrection unto Life eternal.

Grant me these good Things, most merciful Father, and all other needful Graces for Jesus Christ's Sake, in whose Name I farther call upon thee, as he hath taught us in his Gospel, saying,

Our Father, &c.

Short Prayers for the Morning and Evening. By J. F. 1581.

A short Prayer for the Morning.

O God of Light, who hast preserved me and brought me from the Darknes of this Night, shine into my Heart this Day and ever, by thy blessed and holy Spirit, that that I may be enlightened, and led into all Truth, that I may walk faithfully as the Child of Light before thee, casting away the Works of Darkness; in the Place that thou hast set me, doing and performing diligently those Things that thou hast required of me, either to the Praise of thy Name, or the Comfort of my Brethren. Grant this, good Lord, I humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ's Sake.

A short Prayer for the Evening.

I Thank thee, O Father, for thy gracious Protection of me this Day: I beseech thee keep me also this Night, under the Shadow of thy Wings, that I resting in thee, may find such Comfort and Strength both of Body and Soul, as may enable me to the Performance of my Duty. Grant this, I humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ his Sake, mine only Saviour; in whose Name I farther call upon thee, as he hath taught us in his holy Gospel, saying,

Our Father, &c.

A Prayer to GOD the Father as a Preparative to the Meditations ensuing.

O Gracious Lord, Almighty and everlasting God, the Father of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who was born at Bethlehem,

Betlehem, in great Poverty ; Grant me, I beseech thee, a Room amongst the Wise-men of the East, to offer the poor Talent of my weak Devotion unto him all the Days of my Life ; even true Faith for pure Gold ; the Perfume of devout Prayer, for sweet Frankincense, and hearty Sorrow, with bitter Tears of Repentance, for dropping Myrrh.

And because he came into this World in such Humility, furnished with such a Measure of Love, that he was content, without Constraint, to be laden with the heavy Burden of all our Infirmities, and to carry our woful Sorrows ; vouchsafe me some Grace that I may pick up some Crumbs, under thy Table, and gather up some Fruits at the Foot of his Cross, that when I shall have seen what Judas sold, and the Jews bought, what Judas lost, and I have gained, I may bathe my Soul in the purple Stream of his most precious Blood, and then entomb him, and lay him up in a believing Heart, unto his glorious Appearance.

O Lord, since he did vouchsafe to undergo a World of Injuries and Miseries for my Sake, and at the last, in a shameful Death, offered himself up in a Sacrifice to thee for my Redemption ; strengthen my Weakness, and cleanse my Filthiness, that all the Days of my Life, I being washed, (as the Apostle saith) being sanctified, and being justified.

justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of my God, I may never be without Sorrow for my Sins, Thankfulness for thy Benefits, Fear of thy Judgments, Love of thy Mercies, and Remembrance of thy Presence. Amen.

A Meditation, or Prayer, upon the Life, Death, and Passion of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

O Lord, Christ Jesus, Son of God, thou holy, mighty, wonderful God and Man; thou who art the Life of the Living, and the Death of Death, and therefore both in Life and Death Advantage to thy Children; thou, for our Sakes, whose Life was enfeebled with natural Infirmities, and thy Death caused by violent Sorrows, and yet thy Life mild, and thy Death quiet, I beseech thee, give me a Heart of Flesh to weep, lament, and shed Tears down my Cheeks; if not for thy Pains (who didst sweat Drops of Blood trickling down to the Ground, and afterward diedst) yet for my Sins which then bred thy Sorrow, and now would work my Woe.

Lord, I know that for me, amongst many, the Tempest of thy Father's Anger, and Fire of his Wrath, was stirred and kindled against thee; but thou wast innocent and holy, thou art the Worship of Israel; wherefore wherefore, now, with the Wise-men of the East, I come to seek thee in the Stable in Bethlehem, and with all the Jews I come to see thee at Mount Calvary: At Bethlehem, Lord, where the Manger was thy Bed to be born in; on Mount Calvary, where the Cross was thy Bed to die on: In Bethlehem, where a Handful of Straw was the Pillow for thy sacred Head to rest on: In Mount Calvary, where a Crown of Thorns, and a Number of Nails pierced, and fastened both Head and Body: In Bethlehem, where coarse swadling Cloaths were thy best Robes; and in Mount Calvary, where thou wast stripped of thy Cloaths, and thy Body hung naked, in much Misery; I come, Lord, to adore thee, to praise thee, and to pray thee, that as for thy Life-time thou wast content to be bred, born, and brought up in manifold Infirmities, to demonstrate the Truth of thy Humility, and then at thy Death thou wast pleased to disarm thyself, and to be broken with many Miseries, for Discharge of our Captivity, and thereby to seal in our Hearts the Assurance of our Access to thy Throne of Grace: So I pray that thou wilt be pleased, as a gracious King, to hold out the Golden Scepter of Mercy to my fearful Conscience, that I may have a Warrant to come near unto thee, to look into thy Wounds, to sue for Compassion and Pardon, don, and to taste of thy Goodness, who am a sinful Wretch, and a woful Creature, full of Corruption and manifold Infirmities.

O sweet Jéfus, how shall I account the large Severals of thy long Passions, from thy poor Nativity to thy guiltless Death! How shall I reckon up all the Miseries which thou didst endure, from thy bloody Sweat and heavy Agony in one Garden, to thy strange Burial in another? How can I think of thy Labour in Preaching, thy Weariness in Traveling, thy Watchfulness in Praying, thy Temptings in Fasting, thy Tears in Pitying, and not confess more justly of thee, than David did for Jonathan; Very kind hast thou been unto me, thy Love to me was wonderful, passing the Love of Women.

O Lord, was it not enough for thee to be clothed with the Veil of Flesh for to love me; but that thou must be compassed also with the Shadow of Death to save me? Was it not enough to become Earth, Earth, Earth, but thou must become also Woe, Woe, Woe, and all for me? The God of Heaven to become the Son of Man? The Lord of Life to be made the Child of Death? The Master turned to be a Servant, and from a Servant to be accounted a bad Servant? O Humility without Example! O Love beyond Measure! O Grace beyond Merit!

There

There

There was no Proof brought, and yet was he scourged without Measure; no Indictment found, yet was he crucified without Mercy. Oh the beloved of the Lord ran through the Briars of unworthy Passions! O the Holy Lamb was betrayed, carried away, bound, condemned, comforted with Malefactors and Thieves; and like Jonah, plunged in the main Depth of Sorrows, and swallowed up of the Whale of Death.

O thou that didst suffer these Things, remember for whom thou didst suffer them? Remember me, O Lamb of God, that takest away the Sins of the World, have Mercy upon me.

O Lord Jesus, it is the Joy of my Heart to hear that thou hast taken and borne all mine Infirmities all spiritual, all corporal, true Evidences of thy Humanity, but no Impediments to thy Charity, all of Soul, and of Body, and yet neither deformed in Fashion, nor distempered in Passion, nor tainted with any Guilt of Sin; all Infirmities good in thee, all very necessary for me; for thy Soul heavy to Death, shall bring my Soul with Joy to Life. Nay, I should never have been heartily merry, except thou hadst been painfully sad, and grievously sorrowful. I should never have been verily satisfied, except thou hadst truly hungered and thirsted. I should never have been verily satisfied, except thou hadst truly hungred and thirsted. I should never have been delivered from Fear, and absolutely safe, except thou hadst naturally feared, for all was for me.
I delivered

O thou ever glorious God, the Consolation of Israel, and the Hope of all the Ends of the Earth, relieve my careful Conscience, that am sad, disordered, and disturbed in Mind, for fear of thy Judgments, having displeased such a gracious God, and so loving a Father.

O never let my Soul be overtaken with Fear, so far as to despair, nor overwhelmed with the Sea of thy Wrath, nor appalled with the Suggestions of Satan, but let it always hear the Voice of thy Blood speaking better Things than the Blood of Abel, and crying not for Revenge, but for Pardon for me, who, by manifold Transgressions, have robbed God of his Honour, the Church of a Member, and my Soul of Life.

O Man of Sorrows, but Mirror of Patience! What Week of Pains was this to thee? What a good Friday was this for me? What Days of Sorrows were then one after another to thee? And yet with what Patience didst thou pass them over? Patient when Caiaphas so despitefully used thee; patient when Pilate so unrighteously judged thee; patient when false Judas so ningly and treacherously saluted thee, designing thee to be taken. Again, patient when thou didst carry thine own Cross; patient when the Crown of Thorns drew Blood from thy sacred Head; and patient when all others reviled, reproached, bespitted, scoffed, and abused thee.

O thou, who so patiently and peaceably, mildly and meekly, truly and willingly, didst carry painful and pangful, heinous and heavy Sorrows for me; I beseech thee, let thy Patience discharge my Impatience, and let thy Infirmities strengthen my Weakness, inform mine Ignorance, comfort my Sadness, kindle my Love, discharge my Fear, moderate my Anger: O Lord, grant me Patience to bear thy holy Will in all Things.

When I desire Grace, O sweet Jesus, to fulfil thy Commandment of Love and Charity, which is the End of thy Commandment, where shall I take my Pattern but from thee; such a Lover as is Love himself? For, Whom didst thou not love? As for thy Disciples, thou didst love them, as a kind Master doth his Scholars, and cherish them as a good Father doth his Children, and stile them with the Name of thy Friends. Thou didst stoop down to wash their Feet, that were not worthy to untie thy Shoe. Thou didst restore Peter that had denied thee; thou didst save a Thief, Thief, that died with thee; thou didst confirm Thomas, that doubted of thee; thou didst forgive James and John, that asked too much of thee; thy bloody Persecutors and Crucifiers (who did curse and execrate themselves and their Children to do thee a Mischief) they, even they, had thine earnest Prayers on the Cross, before thou didst dispose of thy Mother, or pray for thyself; yea, that Judas that betrayed thee, and sold thee for Thirty Pence, yet, made no Price of thee, but put it to a What will you give me? and took a base Offer; thy holy Hands did wash his unclean Feet, and thy sacred Lips did touch his profane Mouth.

O thou Fountain of Love, thou dost drench those that love thee, in the Streams of thy Pleasures, and embalmeest even thine Enemies with the Oil of Compassion, and hast loved Mankind with an everlasting Love, grant that my Love may be out of a pure Heart, and a good Conscience, and of Faith unfeigned. Thou that wouldst be betrayed with a Kiss, as it were to meet Death in the middle Way. Thou that didst reprove Peter, when he dissuaded thee from it, and didst hasten on Judas, lest he should be too slack to bring thee to it; give me Grace to die in thy Favour, and bring me to Life. Kindle, O kindle my Desires to thee, inflame my Heart with 52 SUPPLICATIONS, &c. Part I.

Thankfulness to thee; inspire my Soul with the Fire of zealous Love to thee, that for thy Love to me, I may evermore love thee above all Things, and my Neighbour as myself.

This is the Consummatum est: O sweet Jesus, thou hast given me that which thou didst not owe me, and hast forgiven me that which I did owe thee; thou was content to be the By-word of the People, and the Curse of the Law for my Sake. Blessed be thy Name, blessed be thy Life, blessed be thy Death; for thy Death is my Birth, thy Crown of Thorns is my Garland, the Scars of thy Body are the Stars of my Firmament; thy gracious Wounds are my happy Plaisters, thy bitter Myrrh refreshes me, thine Infirmities strengthen me, thy Stripes heal me, and thy Blood cleanses me.

Lo! I have nothing to take to, but what I have from thee, therefore Bone Jesu, esto mihi Jesus, O good Jesus, make good thy good Name Jesus unto me, and let thy Passion work Compassion for me, that by thy Mercy I may obtain Remission of my Sins, and by thy Merits I may obtain everlasting Salvation in the Kingdom of Heaven. Amen. Amor meus crucifixus est.

Suppli-

SUPPLICATIONS

O F

S A I N T S.

P A R T II.

A Morning Prayer for Private Families.

Matt. xviii. 20. Where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the midst of them.

Eternal GOD and most merciful Father, which givest to them that want, comfortest them which suffer, and forgivest them which repent; we sinful Creatures sue unto thee for Grace, hoping in thy Mercy towards us, which is over all. Keep us, we beseech thee, this Day, thou has kept us this Night past. Keep us in thy Fear, Faith, and Love. Forgive us all our Sins in the Blood of thy Son, teach

D 3

teach us to sorrow for them, and separate them from us, that would separate us from thee.

O Lord, remove from our Minds all Ignorance and Blindness, and make thy Word unto us, like the Star which led the Wise Men to Christ, and all thy Works profitable Instruments to draw us unto thee. Guide us with thy Spirit, that we may make Conscience of all that we do, and never make light of any Evil, but even abstain from all Appearance of it. Strengthen our Weakness, and enlighten our Understanding, that in the Brunt of Temptations, we may discern between Good and Evil, Right and Wrong, and receive Comfort.

Give us the sacred Hunger and Thirst after Righteousness, that our first Care may be to know thy Truth, and let us so profit in the School of Christ, that in Sickness we may find Patience, in Prison Joy, in Poverty Contentment, and in all Things Hope.

Prosper, O Lord, our Labours, and the Work of our Hands, and give us Hearts to learn something of every Thing, and make a spiritual Use of all our earthly Actions and Occasions, till we come to lodge with thee in the Kingdom of Heaven; let our loving Affections grow one towards another unfeignedly, that we may love our

our Brethren, and they us; and pray for them, and they for us; and both of us be heard of thee for ourselves, and one for another, and thy Son for us all.

Bless, Lord, the universal Church with Truth, Peace, Soundness of Doctrine, and holy Discipline. Continue thy Mercies towards this Realm, preserve his gracious Majesty, and all the Royal Family; sanctify the Studies and Lives of the Ministers of the Gospel, and all others that labour in thy Word and Doctrine. Bless his Majesty's most honourable Privy-Council, and all others in Authority, with necessary Graces.

Bless the Nurseries of good Learning, all Grammar Schools, the famous Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and the Inns of Court. Bless this City and Place wherein we live, remove the Punishments due for the Sins thereof, and give them truly Grace to repent in Time, lest they be destroyed.

Bless all our Friends, Kinsfolks, and others, for whom thou hast appointed us to make Prayers and Supplications; strengthen them that suffer for this Cause, and send them the Comforts of thy Spirit: Comfort them that lie in Anguish of Conscience for Remorse of Sin, and convert all that go astray, and teach us by their Examples, to see our own Weakness, and to look better to our Ways. Bless this Family with Grace and Peace, that the Rulers, Children, and Servants thereof, may know their several Duties, and practise the same in thy Fear, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Another of the same.

Psal. cviii. 3. I will praise thee, O Lord, among the People, and I will sing Praises unto thee among the Nations.

MOst gracious God, and merciful Father, though we be unworthy the least of thy Mercies, yet hast thou from Time to Time made us Partakers of many, for which we praise and magnify thy holy Name, beseeching thee to give us understanding Hearts to feel our Evils, and Direction and Assistance from thy Spirit to avoid the same. And as thou hast in great Mercy kept us this Night, in the Time of Darknes and Dangers, so we beseech thee to keep us this Day, that the Sun of Righteousness may rule in our Hearts, and all that Darknes that lurketh in them, may be scattered to the Comfort of our Souls, and we may walk as thy Children, in clear Light without Danger.

Endue us with Gifts and Graces needful for us, and grant, that with a pure and sincere sincere Conscience, we may use them to the Benefit of our Brethren, and the Discharge of our own Duties. Keep the Watch of our Tongues, and the Door of our Lips, in such sort, that no rash, evil, or vain Words pass thereby, and so rule and govern our Hearts, that we may not mind or think any thing, but that which shall be to thy Glory. Grant us thy Blessing of Health, Peace, and Maintenance, so far as thou seest them good for us, and especially thy holy Spirit, to instruct us as well in the Want thereof, as in the lawful Use of them. In all our Consultations, Words, and Works, let us remember thy Presence, that thou seest wheresoever we do bestow ourselves, and wilt judge us if we go astray, or do amiss. Chase away from us all Rancour and Malice, Covetousness, Uncharitableness, and Unthankfulness, and whatsoever is contrary to thy Love, which is to us-ward in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Take from us all Ignorance and Negligence, with the Want of Judgment and Discretion; and prevent all those Things that thou knowest may hinder us in our Christian Calling. Increase our Faith, Patience, and Obedience. Let thy Blessing be upon this whole Household, to lead us into thy Truth, and protect us in our Ways, and all those whom thou hast made dear unto us, whether they be present or absent. Be good to our Children, Servants, and Friends, that live with us, that we may live together in the Service of thy Gospel, to grow up in godly Conversation, and Soundness of Faith. Give us Grace by thy Correction, to fear thee more carefully, and to sorrow for our Sins more heartily. O Lord, grant these Things, and whatsoever else thou knowest to be necessary for us, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Private Families.

Psal. cxvi. 12. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his Benefits towards me? Because he hath inclined his Ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

O Lord God, Father of all Mercies, Creator of Heaven and Earth, we render unto thee Thanks, in all Abundance for thy merciful Preservation of us this Day, and all the Times and Days of our Life, that thou hast brought us safe and sound through so many Dangers, and poured upon us (contrary to our deserving) so many excellent and notable Blessings and Benefits, both spiritual and corporal. Good Lord (we beseech thee) keep us evermore, from Day to Day, as thou hast done, and make us constant in the Profession of thy holy Name, and the Practice of thy Law, that neither the Violence of Man, nor Subtily of Satan, be able to make us turn away from thee. Lord, turn thy Face from our Sins, wherein we have so delighted; alter our Hearts, and wash and cleanse us from all Sins and Corruptions, in the Blood of thy Son. Forgive us all that is past, and grant us the Assurance of that Forgiveness, sealed up in our Consciences by thy holy Spirit. Kindle thy Love so fervently in our Hearts, that we may detest whatsoever is against thee and thy Word.
make

Forgive us our great Contempt, and intolerable Barrenness in good Works, our foul Unthankfulness, and the Abuse of thy Grace, and strike our stony Hearts with the Rod of thy Fear, that we may attain unto a due Thankfulness for thy Benefits, and a most unfeigned and earnest Repentance for our Sins.

O Lord, bless us all this Night, that after our Bodies have been refreshed with competent Sleep, we may see the Light of the next Morning, and rise safe and sound, to serve thee in our several Vocations: Sanctify our Minds, that by the Help of thy Mercy, we may bless thy Church and her Ministers. Preserve his Majesty, protect the Magistrate of Justice, and all faithful People; rear up the heavy-hearted, that mourn in Zion, and turn the Chastisement of thy Children, to their Good.

Lord, be merciful unto them whom thou hast made any Way helpful unto us, and bless every one of us in our Place, that we may truly serve thee, fear thy Majesty, and love thy Authority. These Things, O Lord, and all other needful for us, we do crave at thy Hands, in the Name, and for the Righteousness of Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer, saying, as he hath taught us,

Our Father, &c.

Another of the same.

Pfal. cxiii. 3. From the Rising of the Sun, unto the Going down of the same, the Lord's Name is to be praised.

O Ever-living God, and our ever-living Father, who hast not left us comfortless, but hast given us thy Son for a Ransom, thy Word for a Guide, and reserved a Kingdom for our Inheritance in Heaven; we give thee Thanks for these and all other thy most gracious Benefits, beseeching thee, that we may have the Grace to make such Use of them, that they may never be in vain unto us. O Lord, forgive unto us all our Sins; remove from us all those Things which our Consciences are afraid of. Assure us of thy gracious Pardon, don, and renew us by thy holy Spirit, that we may unfeignedly hate and detest whatsoever is displeasing unto thee. Lord give us a sincere Heart to serve thee; and let this be the Hour of our Conversion. In all Temptations give us Strength to resist and overcome; in all Troubles Patience to bear; and grant that we constantly persevere in our Faith, Hope, and Patience, unto the End, that the Hope of Mercy may keep us from the Horror of Despair, and the Fear of Justice from the Sin of Presumption.

O good God, order our Times in such a comfortable Sort, that we having Peace in thee, our Bodies and Minds may be the more able to do their several Offices in our Vocation. Instruct us by thy Word, guide us by thy Spirit, mollify us by thy Grace, humble us by thy Correction, and win us by thy Benefits.

O Lord, we beseech thee, let all Things work for the best to us, that desire truly to love thee. Continue thy Favour and Goodness unto us this Night, that we taking our natural Rest and Quietness, may, through thy Protection be all defended from immoderate Sleep, fearful Dreams, and outward Violence of our Enemies, and all imminent Dangers. Touch our Hearts with a Desire and Longing after heavenly Things, that whensoever it shall please thee to call for us, we may be willing to come unto thee, as Children to their Fathers, Strangers unto their Country, and Members of thy Body unto their Head.
to

Grant us, O Lord, these and all other Things needful and meet for us, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

A Form of Prayer, to serve for Morning and Evening in a Family.

O God of Glory, and Father of Mercy, eternal and incomprehensible Majesty, in whom we sinful Creatures live, move, and have our Being; favourably hear our imperfect Prayers, and mercifully grant our needfull Suits.

Great is our Debt to thy all-good Greatness, for thy great Goodness bestowed upon us, in our Election, Creation, and Sanctification; in our Understanding, Health, Wealth, and Peace together with thy gracious Preservation of us this [in the Morning] Night past from Fire and Water, Thieves and Robbers, Death and Desolation. [at Evening] Day past, from wilful Sinning, deadly Hurts, Fire and Water, Thieves and Robbers.

Besides our Maladies and Miseries, which our Forgetfulness of thee, Neglect of ourselves, selves, natural Corruptions, and Disability of Estate, might have brought upon us.

Behold we are here before thy Footstool, with humble Hearts, bended Knees, and Hands lifted up, adoring thy Majesty and praising thy Mercy, for this and all other Goodness received from thee, saying in the Zeal of thy holy Prophet, Blessed be the Lord GOD of Israel from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

O Lord, look not upon our Unworthiness, but turn thy Face from our Iniquities, and look upon the Obedience, Satisfaction, and Worthiness of thy Son Jesus, our Saviour, and forgive us all our Sins in his Blood which thou wast pleased should be shed to that End; separate them from us, as far as the East is from the West which would separate us from thee as far as Heaven is from Hell. Teach us to sorrow and lament for them in true Contrition, and with humble and broken Hearts; and hereafter let the powerful Operations of thy all-sufficient Grace so alter the Nature of our Judgments, that we may never make light of any Sin, be it never so much incident to the Frailty of our Life but even detest every ill Action, and abstain from all Appearance of it. Endue us, O good Father, with such Gifts and Graces, as shall be needful and meet for us. Work and increase in us Faith, Patience, and Obedience ence to thee and thy Ordinances. In all our Consultations, Determinations, Desires, Words, and Works, keep the Closet of our Hearts, the Door of our Lips, and the Motion of our Hands, that we may always stand in I'ear of thy all-seeing Eye which looketh upon us; cast out of our Hearts, all idle, unclean, and vain Thoughts, evil Imaginations, Rancour, Malice, Uncharitableness, and whatsoever is contrary to thy blessed Commandment; and so guide us in those Things which thou hast allowed, that with a sincere and good Conscience, we may do all that we do in the Name of the Lord, to the right Discharge of our own Duties, and the Benefit and Furtherance of our Brethren. Grant us that sacred Hunger and Thirst after Righteousness, (which thou hast so blessed in thy holy Word) that our first Care and earnest Desire may be to know thy Truth, and to do thy Will with Zeal and Discretion; and when we are to undergo the Trial of any Temptation, support and strengthen us that we may be able to discern between Good and Evil, Truth and Falshood, Right and Wrong, Fear and Hope, to our Comfort in all Meditations, in the Reading and Hearing of thy holy Word: Lord, make it unto us the Saviour of Life unto Life, seasoning and illuminating our Hearts with thy unspeakable Light, like unto that uncouth couched Star which appeared to the Wise Men, that we may thereby be led to Christ, the Light of the Gentiles, and the Glory of thy People Israel; and that thereby we may so profit in his School, as that in Sicknes we may find Patience, in Afflictions Joy, in Poverty Contentment, and in all Things Hope that thou wilt be our Father and our God. And because we are all the Children of one Father, and one Mother, God and the Church, we pray thee to bless thy holy Church universal, and to comfort all those that mourn in Zion, in Conscience and for Conscience. Remember, O Lord, Joseph's Afflictions, Paul's Bonds; Mary Magdalen's Tears, Job's Trials, Lazarus's Sicknes; and let Stephen's Death be always dear in thy Sight. Let our loving Affections so mutually grow, one towards another, that we may live together in Love professing with one Heart and one Mind, a true Faith, and labouring to keep a holy and acceptable Conversation that we may forgive our Brethren, and they us; to pray for them, and they for us; in the Things of this World be helpful to them, and they to us. Let thy Blessing be upon this Household, the Rulers, Children, and Servants thereof. Guide us in our Ways, and lead us into thy Truth, that every one of us may know our several Duties, and perform them in thy Fear. Bless our Parents, Kindred, and Friends, Friends, wheresoever they remain in this World; endue them all with Gifts and Graces needful and requisite for their several Estates, Degrees, and Callings.

In the Morning.

PROsper our Labours, and bless our just Endeavours, in all the Work which we are to take in Hand this Day, and ever; and give us thy Blessing of Health, Peace, Maintenance and Safety.

At Evening.

O Lord, bless us all this Night, and save us from noisome Dreams, sudden Incurfions, and all violent Hands, and other Dangers; that after our Bodies have been refreshed with competent Sleep to suffice Nature, we may see the Light of the next Morning, and arise safe and sound, to serve in our several Vocations, willingly and chearfully. Good Lord, we beseech thee, grant us all these Blessings, Gifts, and Graces, and whatsoever else thou knowest to be necessary for us. Hear us for thy Church, and thy Church for us, and thy Christ for us all: In whose Name, and absolute Form of Prayer, we conclude these our weak Requests unto thee, saying, as he hath taught us,

Our Father, &c.

A Prayer for the Catholic Church, and all the Estates thereof.

Pfal. cxxv. 4. Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their Hearts.

O Son of the eternal GOD, thou sweet Spouse of the Church, bless, we beseech thee, preserve, and keep thy poor Church militant here on Earth, the blef-sed Company of all faithful People: Make all Kings and Princes, and the supreme Governor of every Nation, careful Nursing-Fathers, and Nursing-Mothers to the same. Let all the Members thereof, be of one Mind, and one Heart, that there may be such holy Concord in the Knowledge of thy Truth, and such Obedience to their Superiors, with brotherly Unity in all Matters; as they may neither produce thy Scourge, nor the Prince's Sword against them. Grant the Gospel free Passage, and long Continuance in Prosperity, and remove not the Candlestick for the Unfruitfulness or Unthankfulness of the Professors. Put thy principal Spirit upon the Ministers of the Word, the Archbishops, Bishops, and Pastors of the several Congregations; and give them Grace to follow

low the Steps of the holy Apostles and blessed Martyrs, that, being inflamed with true Zeal, and furnished with sufficient Knowledge, they may be willing to labour in Season and out of Season, for the Feeding of thy Flock. Bless their Labours, to the Winning of Souls to thee; and bless them with Boldness of Speech, and Innocency of Life, that, like sworn Soldiers to the Cross of Christ, they may live and die under thy Banner. Cast down the Beams of thy heavenly Light upon such public Places, as are appointed for the Training up of younger Years in sound Knowledge, and commendable Qualities; namely, both our Universities, Oxford and Cambridge, the Inns of Court, and all Grammar-Schools, the Seed-plats of the Church. Sanctify their Memories to treasure up good Things; purge their Consciences to have Peace in thee; reform their Wills to thy Will; and let all their Affections be ordered aright, and their Vessels seasoned with the best of Liquor in the Beginning, and so to continue. Bless the higher Powers of Authority; make them truly humble in the Top of their Height, that their Heads be lifted up to Honour, their Hearts may not be puffed up, nor swell with Pride; but so rule their Hearts and Minds, that all Kings and Princes may truly truly serve thee, reverence, and stand in awe of thee. Defend and maintain thy Church and Truth, and wisely foresee what is best for the Advancement of thy Glory, and the Good of the Commonwealth. So deal also, O Lord, with all subordinate Authorities, and keep them from Factions, Treasons, and Conspiracies. Let the Judges be learned and uncorrupted, and the Lawyers Men of Conscience, to deal sincerely and uprightly in their Business, without either Fear of greater Personages, or doing of unlawful Favours to Friends, or Desire of Reward from any. Calm the Waves, and quiet the Storms of all Persecutions; repress the Rage and Cruelty of all Tyrants, Heathen or Christian. Take away all unchristian Practices out of the Church of Rome; let it persuade nothing to the Infection of Youth, or Subversion of the State. Confound all Heresies and Heretics; disperse all Schisms and Sects, that there be no Jars nor Differences of Opinions amongst thy Servants, but that we may be like-minded, having the same Love, being of one Accord, and of one Judgment. In fine, O Lord, comfort them that are over-worn with War, wasted with Exactions, vexed with Plague and Sicknes, consumed with Famine, overflowed with Waters, and scared with fearful Threatenings from the Skies. Convert the Simple,

Simple, confound the Obstinate, gather the Dispersed, heal the Broken-hearted, supply our Wants, and amend all that is amiss, for thy Truth, and for thy Names Sake. Amen.

Another for the same Use.

Ephes. v. 25, 26. Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the Washing of Water by the Word.

O Lord God, thou just Master of the Vineyard, and loving Head of the Church, send down thine holy Spirit into the Hearts of all them that preach and profess thy holy Truth, all Men religious and secular; yea, Men and Women, Princes and Subjects, Rich and Poor, even all the People believing in thy Name, and depending on thy Grace and Mercy. Give unto them, O Lord, one Law, one Baptism, one Hope, one Spirit, that there may be but one Voice among all that profess the Catholic Faith. Keep back the Famine of thy Word, and send such Labourers into thy Harvest, as be sound of Doctrine, faithful in their Work, and godly in Conversation, that they may be in Number many, and in Power wonderful and effectual. Open, we beseech thee,
I the

the Hearts and Ears of the People, for the receiving of thy Word, that it may dwell plentifully in all Wisdom, and bring forth Fruits against all the Cares, Crosses, and Courses of this wretched World. O Lord, thou hast found Iniquity in thy Saints and the Heavens are not clean in thy Sight. O then correct us in thy Judgment, not in thy Fury, lest we should be consumed and brought to nothing. Purge the Garden of thy Church, and let no Weeds overgrow the Flowers. Suffer neither Sin nor Superstition to choke the good Growth of Faith or Manners in thy People, but keep them from all Evil, Heresies, fantastical Opinions, seducing Spirits, and deadly Contentions. Keep our Necks from the grievous Yoke of Antichristian Bondage, whose Religion is Rebellion, whose Faith is Faction, and whose Practice is the Murdering of Souls and Bodies; and repress the Furioufness of Tyrants, which labour for nothing but the Spoil of the Church, and the Abolishment of true Doctrine, Prayer, and true Religion. O Lord Jesus, amend all that is amifs, and grant us thy Grace all the Days of our Life, even for thy Truth, and for thy Name's Sake. Amen.

A Prayer for his Majesty's Royal Kindred and Family.

Ecclef. x. 17. Blessed art thou, O Land, when thy King is the Son of Nobles.

O Almighty God, King of all Kings, the Fountain, Rule, and Stay of all Sovereignty; we most humbly Thank thee, that thou hast not left us unto ourselves, to do what seemeth best in our own Eyes, but hast set over us a Noble, Wise, and Gracious King, GEORGE thy Servant, our supreme Head and Governor, next unto thee. Lord, make all thy Goodness and Grace to go before him Day and Night: Uphold his Crown, maintain his State; give him continual Peace, long Life, and much Happiness. Endue him with Wisdom and Understanding in the Church and Commonwealth, as may be acceptable in thy Sight, profitable to all his Subjects, and hurtful to none that love thy Truth. Mercifully hear him in all his Petitions; and effectually work for him in all Dangers, in the Day of Battle; in his greatest Consultations, in the Time of his Recreations, in the Plots of Treason, and other wicked Designs of his Enemies, and in the Hour of Death. Make us thankful for all thy Preservations of him, both at Home

Home and Abroad, in this Kingdom and elsewhere. Bless, preserve, and keep him, and the rest of the Royal Family. Let him always embrace thy Truth, and manfully maintain it against all treacherous Plots, and sinister Persuasions. Let thy Power go forth with his Armies, and give him glorious Victories. Banish from his Court all privy Foes, foreign and domestical; and keep him from all Sorts of Dissemblers.

Let not our Sins, O Lord, provoke thee to shorten his Days, and deprive us of thy good Blessings, but convert us to thy good Will and Pleasure. And give him the Crown of old Age, and long to continue in the Ways of Righteousness.

O holy Father, give him such excellent Gifts, as befits the Majesty which he bears, that he may be in Faith like Abraham, in Courage like David, in Wisdom like Solomon, and in hearing Good and Evil as an Angel of God. Enrich his Council and Nobles, with Wisdom, Loyalty, and Fortitude; and make his Servants, that stand before him, in their several Places (with all other Subjects) as so many Lines drawn to one Center, that their Hearts being tied unto him, they may be always fearful to offend, willing to obey, and faithful to accomplish whatsoever may stand with thy Glory, our Sovereign's Honour, and the

E

Good

Good of thy Church and Commonwealth, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Another for the same Use.

1 Tim. ii. 1, 2. Let Supplications, Prayers, Intercessions, and giving of Thanks, be made for all Men; for Kings, and for all those that are in Authority.

O GOD, which hast the King's Heart in thy Hand, as the Rivers of Waters, and turnest it wheresoever it pleaseth thee;
we humbly beseech thee to keep thy universal Church, and our Commonwealth, with Peace and Prosperity in thy Worship and Service. Give, O Lord, Grace to our most noble King GEORGE, that he may love, honour, fear, and serve thee, and that he may put his Trust only in thee. Endue him with the Spirit of Wisdom and Knowledge, and with all other good Gifts and Virtues necessary for his Royal Function; especially inflame his Heart with an earnest and true Zeal, to set forth thy Glory, and to make thy Will known unto all his Subjects, that they may both with Heart and Mind, observe and keep the same;
and that both with Heart and Mind his subordinate Magistrates may indifferently
and

and faithfully minister Judgment and Justice to all his People.

We beseech thee, O Lord, preserve his Body in Health, his Mind in Quietness, and both in all Sincerity and Goodness, that by his good Example, he may both stop the Mouths of his Adversaries, and win the Hearts of all those that believe and profess thy Gospel. Make his Days, O Lord, as the Days of Heaven, that he may reign many Years over us, and we his Subjects may long live a peaceable and quiet Life, in all Godliness and Honesty under his sacred Government.

Grant unto him, wise and faithful Counsellors, loving and obedient Subjects, dutiful and true Servants. Deliver him, O Lord, from all Conspiracies, Treasons, and other Dangers; and grant him always a glorious Victory over all his Enemies.

Pardon and forgive him all his Sins; make him walk all the Days of his Life in thy Commandments, that he may live in thy Fear, and die in thy Favour, and that, in the Resurrection of all Flesh, he may receive a Crown of Righteousness, the only Thing which he does wish and hope for, through the Merits and Mercies of Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour.
Amen.

A Prayer against the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil.

Matt. xxvi. 41. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into Temptation.

O Most merciful and mighty God, the Fortrefs of the Faithful, a Rock of Defence, and a Refuge for all distressed Souls, which knowest we be set in the Midst of so great Dangers, that without thy Help we cannot avoid our Ruin. I beseech thee, keep my Body and Soul from all Temptations and Snares of the Devil, and suffer not my Senses to range and wander Abroad, in Matters of Pleasure and Delight, which are to no Purpose. Good Lord, take from me that which is deformed and polluted by my corrupt Nature, and work and establish that which thy Grace hath wrought in me, that having thy whole Armour fitted upon me, I may be able to withstand all Assaults of the Enemy. Let me not be drawn away by Sensuality, or any of the Desires of the Flesh, but give me Power to tame this Body, that by Sobriety, Moderation, and Abstinence from superfluous Things, I may bring it into such Subjection, as I may better serve thee, and walk in the Spirit: Lord, sequester me from the Darkness, ness, Filthiness, and Deceitfulness of this wicked World; that I be not fashioned like thereunto, to follow the Multitude; but being changed by the Renewing of my Mind, I may walk uprightly and godlily, looking for the blessed Appearing of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. O Lord, be favourable and gracious to me in the Day of Trial; and lead me no farther into any Temptation than thou wilt make me able to bear: Grant, O Lord, that I may, with strong Faith, resist Satan, and by Watching, Fasting, and Praying, mortify the Lust of the Flesh; and by continual Meditation of thy holy Law, avoid the foolish Vanities, and dangerous Pleasures of this World.

Let not Knowledge puff me up, Prosperity mislead me, Poverty dismay me, Sickness turn me to Impatience, nor Troubles of this Life bring me to distrust in thy Providence, or force me to seek unlawful Means to avoid them.

Arm me, O Lord, with thy Spirit; encourage me with thy Presence, and let all thy Children feel the effectual working of thy Power, which is ever made perfect through Weakness, even for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour.
Amen.

A Prayer for Remission of Sins, and all Things necessary thereunto.

Pfal. cvi. 6. We have sinned with our Fathers, we have committed Iniquity, and we have done wickedly.

O Lord God, in Greatness infinite, in Power omnipotent, in Counsel wonderful, and in Judgment terrible, although I, miserable Sinner, have by thy Justice truly deserved everlasting Damnation for my horrible Sins, yet, I beseech thee, cast me not away with them that have not known thee, or such as forget God, or such as run on in their Wickedness, and never say, what have I done? For I appeal from thy rightful Justice to thine unspeakable Mercy, and humbly cast down myself at thy Feet, and confess my Sins, beseeching, and begging Compassion and Pardon.

Behold, Lord, I am a Piece of that Purchase that cost so great a Price as the Blood of thy dear Son, my Body and Soul are the Temples of the Holy Ghost, the Posts whereof are sprinkled with his precious Blood, which crieth for Mercy, and therefore enter not into the Course of Judgment with me (for there I know I shall be ~~overthrown~~); but forbear, forgive, and acquit quit me upon that Satisfaction which he hath made for penitent Sinners.

O Lord, though the Stipend of my Sin be Death, and Merit of my Transgression, eternal Perdition; yet is thy Mercy above all thy Judgments, and thou canst forgive more than I can offend: Wherefore I pray thee, set his Cross and Passion between thy Judgment and my Soul; look upon me with the Eye of Mercy and Compassion, as thou didst upon the sinful Woman at the Banquet, and the Publican in the Temple, whose Pardons are registered in thy Book for my Comfort.

O Lord, bow down the Height of thy Deity, to behold my Vileness and Misery, (a live Image of the prodigal Son) who knows no other Help but only thee, the most loving Father, whom I have so highly offended. Pour the Oil of thy Mercy into my defiled and fainting Heart; search it, that I may not flatter myself to extenuate my Sin. Cleanse it, and season it with the Salt of thy Grace, to receive and retain all Goodness hereafter. Lord, I thank thee for thy Patience and Long-suffering, that thou hast not suddenly (according to my Desert) taken Vengeance on me, but given me a longer Time of Repentance; wherefore, I beseech thee, appease thy Anger towards me now, but loosen in me the Works of Darkness. Create in me a Heart; and because thou lookest for my Amendment, I beseech thee grant me thy Favour, that I may amend: Give me Grace to repent unfeignedly, with Fasting, Weeping, and Mourning, and make my Faith lively to believe, that I am forgiven in Jesus Christ.

Let not the Faults of my Fore-fathers light upon my Head, who have walked in their sinful Steps; neither be angry with me for their Sakes: But let the Well-doing of Jesus Christ, who hath shed his Blood for me, succour me, and procure my Pardon. Forgive me all my Sins of Youth and Age, Negligences and Ignorances, in Thoughts, Words, and Deeds; and keep me from presumptuous Sins. O Lord, look not upon the Pharisee, for he dissembleth; nor upon the Publican first, for he saith little for himself in outward Shew; nor upon Mary Magdalen only, for she had but seven Devils; but look upon me, that am of Sinners, the Chief, worse than either Pharisee, Publican, or Mary, who have as many Sins as Hairs upon my Head, and a greater Clog upon my Conscience, than any Burden that Man hath to bear; and do therefore openly, earnestly, unfeignedly, and continually call upon thee. O Lord, keep under Satan, that he drive not my Soul upon the Rocks of Despair; quench all the Motions of my Mind, striving

striving against thy Divine Pleasure, and restore in me the Image of thy Son, that I may live in thy Fear, die in thy Favour, and rest in thy Peace, rise in thy Power, and remain in thy Glory, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for obtaining of Faith, Hope, and Charity, and all Christian Virtues.

Phil. iv. 19. My GOD shall supply all your Wants, according to his Riches in Glory, by Christ Jesus.

O Father of Light, in whom is every good Thing, and every perfect Gift, I beseech thee to bless me with all spiritual Blessings in heavenly Things in Christ. Increase the little Grain of my weak and feeble Faith, direct it to the true Object, the Merits of Christ Jesus, and let it not be bare and dead, but effectual, working by Love. Make me strong therein, and constant to give Credit to thy Word, without Doubting; and protect me among the divers and manifold Errors, Sects, and Heresies of the World, that fight against the Foundation. Lord, let me not be disappointed of my Hope, which I have in thee, and make good thy Promises unto me, and so work in my Heart, that I may have Courage in Conflict, Patience in Trouble, and Comfort in all Things. Keep me from Insolency and Pride, and grant me true Humility, and Lowliness of Mind, that I be not puffed up to condemn my Brethren; but give me that due Consideration of my own Vileness and Infirmities, that as Dust and Ashes I may tremble and stand in Awe of thy Judgments, and as a sinful Man, esteem better of others than of myself.

O dear Father, when Satan shall accuse me, my Conscience be Witness against me, the whole World forsake me, and all Things set themselves against me for my Sins, then strengthen me, I beseech thee, in thy Faith, that I fall not from thee; inflame my cold Heart with the heavenly Affection of unfeigned Love, that I may love thee, O blessed Trinity, with all that I have, above all, and my Neighbour as myself.

Grant me a compassionate and charitable Mind, to help and succour others to my Ability, to forbear and forgive them, though they be mine Enemies: Purge my Veins, and suffer not the stinking Poison of Envy and Wrath to infect my Blood; and so moderate my Affection, that the Sun go not down upon my Wrath, but that I may be satisfied in knowing that Vengeance is thine: Give me Grace to follow the Examples of all painful and godly labouring Men, in Matters of my Vocation; and and keep me from the hateful Sin of Sloth, and Idleness, the Nourisher of Vice, and the High-way to Beggary. Grant me a contented Mind against Covetousness, a moderate Appetite against Gluttony and Surfeits, and a chaste Body from disordered Lust. Comfort me, O Lord, in all grievous Accidents, and at the Point of Death; and give me Grace to fasten all my Confidence in thee, that whereas now I see by Faith only (as it were in a Glass darkly) I may then see Face to Face, the only Thing which I desire and hope for, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer before the Receiving of the Holy Communion.

1 Cor. xi. 26. As often as you eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, you do shew the Lord's Death until he come.

O Lord GOD, merciful Father, who after the Sacrament of Regeneration, hast appointed us to receive oft-times the blessed Sacrament of the Supper, instituted by our Saviour Christ, immediately before his Death, for Confirmation of our Faith; have Mercy upon me, vile Wretch, who, for my natural Corruptions, and manifold Transgressions, am not worthy to approach unto thy Table, or come near thy House.

O gracious God, pardon me, and disdain not to accept me into thy Favour; but forgive me all the Sins that I have done, or said, or thought, in Pride, Wrath, Envy, Gluttony, Sloth, Covetousness, or Wantonness: Give me a true and lively Faith to believe thy Word, and the Promise of my Pardon, annexed to thy Sacrament.

Inflame me with Love and Charity towards all Men, to forgive and forget, to do Good, and to pray for them, that I may follow the Steps of my blessed Saviour. Open the Eyes of my Understanding, and help me to examine myself concerning my Knowledge, Faith, and Repentance. Give me Hunger and Thirst after this Righteousness, satisfy me with this heavenly Food, make me verily Partaker of all the Benefits of his Passion.

O dear Lord Jesus, since thou hast suffered so many Things for my Sake, and hast commanded me not to despair, or distrust thy Goodness, grant me Grace so to eat of this Bread, and to drink of this Cup worthily, that I may continually remain in thy Grace and Favour.

O Lord God, the Father, give me the full Consolation of this Mystery, and Commemoration of that most precious Death

Death of thy Son, and our Saviour, Jesus Christ, that my Faith may be increased, my Hope confirmed, my Charity inflamed, my weak Conscience comforted, all Dangers repelled, and my Soul assured of her Salvation in the Blood of Christ. Let no Profaneness enter into my Heart, so long as I am about this holy Action; but give me Grace to receive with Purity of Heart, and Cleanness of Soul, with Love, Dread, and steadfast Faith.

Have mercy upon me, good Lord, that by unworthy receiving, I be not guilty of his precious Body and Blood, who came down from Heaven, lived with Men, and swam through a Red Sea of Blood, in his Agony and Passion, to be my Redeemer. Have mercy upon the whole Church; and to this Purpose, have mercy upon this Company, with whom I now (by thy Mercy) communicate in these holy Mysteries, that they may serve and please thee in this thy holy Service, and all other Actions of their Life, for Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

Another

Another for the same, before the Communion.

1 Cor. xi. 28. Let a Man examine himself, and so let him eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup.

O Almighty God, and merciful Father, I am a secret Sinner, and my Heart is a bottomless Pit of all Corruptions; wilfully and foolishly, ignorantly and obstinately, have I sinned against thee, unto whose Eye all the Secrets of my Soul lie open: But now I come unto thee, as a sick Man to the Physician, as an unclean Man, to the Well of Mercy and Grace, offered in the precious Blood-shedding of Jesus Christ, and represented to my Soul in this blessed Sacrament. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, and forgive me all the Evils that I am guilty of: Give me Grace that I may discern the Lord's Body, and so receive it spiritually, and by Faith, in the Sacrament; with such Chastity of Body, Humbleness of Mind, Thankfulness of Soul, Contrition, and dread Reverence, as is meet for so high a Mystery.

O Lord Jesus, it is truly said of thee, that thou didst receive Sinners, and eat with them, and I verily believe, that thou art the same still, full of Goodness and Mercy;

Mercy; wherefore, I beseech thee, leave me not to myself, reject me not from thy Table. Come into my Heart, and purge me from all Filthiness of the Flesh, and of the Spirit. Enter into my Soul, seal and sanctify me both within and without. O Lord, be not angry with me, a barren and dry Tree, a Creature with a Face of Brasse, and Heart of Flint. I have not shed so many Tears as are sufficient to wash thy Feet with Mary Magdalen; but thou hast shed as much of thine own Blood, as sufficeth to wash away the Sins of me, and all the World: Then be not angry with me, O Lord, but let thy Grace supply my Wants, let thy Mercy pardon my Sins, let thy Holy Spirit prepare my Soul, thy Merits enrich my Poverty, and thy most precious Blood wash away all the Spots of my Life, that I may worthily receive this heavenly Sacrament, so that I may be strengthened thereby, and thoroughly filled with the heavenly Food of thy Body and Blood, for the Mortification of the old Man, and the Confirmation of my Soul. O Lord, hear my Prayers, and grant my Requests, I beseech thee. Amen.

A Prayer

A Prayer after the Receiving of the Holy Communion.

i Cor. v. 7. Purge out therefore the old Heaven, that ye may be a new Lump, as ye are unleavened: For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

O Jesus, the Son of God, my Lord and Saviour, with all humble and hearty Thanks, I praise thee for suffering Death upon the Cross for my Sins, and admitting me, a miserable Sinner, to the Participation of this blessed Sacrament, the Memorial of my Redemption. Let me, O Lord, find and feel in my Heart, the invisible Power of thy heavenly Grace, effectually working the Transformation of me into thee, the wonderful Union of me with thee, thy spiritual Habitation and Abode in me.

Apply all thy Merits and good Things unto my Soul. Let me never doubt the Forgiveness of my Sins, but ever open the Door of this Sanctuary to me, that I may run thither in my greatest Need, and apprehend thy gracious Pardon, ratified by the Seal of thy Covenant.

Quicken me, O Lord, in this Life, revive and renew me, that I may disclaim my old Conversation, and become a new Man.

Man. Keep me that I slip not out of this Building, nor become as a Branch cut off, and good for nothing; but as thou hast severed me from the Wicked, in calling me to the Knowledge of thee, so keep me from all their Corruptions. Give me a perfect Love towards thee, that I may not delight in any Thing but in thee, nor seek any other Honour but thine.

O Lord Jesus, I meekly beseech thee, let thy holy Spirit strengthen me against my Frailty, thy Power and Strength defend me against worldly Troubles and Adversities, thy Merits purchase my needful Pardon, and thy Blood be the Medicine for all my Sores, even for thy Name's Sake.

Amen.

Another of the same, after the Communion.

John xv. 13. Greater Love has no Man than this, that a Man lay down his Life for his Friends.

O Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, who hast so loved Man, that thou hast not only been contented to become one with him, but also Meat unto him, and to die for him upon the Cross; Grant, I beseech thee, that this my Receiving of this Sacrament, may be a true Testimony to my my Conscience, that I have, through Faith in thee, received full Remission of what is past, and become, as it were, a new Creature in thy Sight.

O sweet Jesus, who hast vouchsafed me such a Favour and Honour, as to come to thy Table and feed upon thee; grant me Grace, I humbly intreat thee, so to perform and fulfil my Duty, as this Honour which thou hast done to me requir-eth: Link me unto thee, and give me Power and Strength to believe thy Promises without Distrust, and to shew my Religion by my good Life and Conversation. Assist me with thy Grace, that I may walk worthy of this blessed Sacrament, to love thee and thy Law unfeignedly, and utterly to forsake Vanity, Idolatry, carnal Desires, and all the Works of the Devil.

Lord God, so moderate, and order all mine Affections, that I may be joined with the Brethren together in holy Love, which is the Bond of Peace, and truly fastened unto thee my Head for ever. Stir up my Mind that I may always consider the Bitterness of thy Death, the Greatness of thy Love, and never forget to be thankful to thee.

O blessed Lord, preserve and maintain this Ordinance amongst us, that it may be always a Note and Badge of our public Profession, and give us all one Heart, and one one Mind, in the Unity of the Spirit, from the reverend and worthy receiving the same, whensoever we shall come to thy holy Table again.

A Prayer for the Fruits of the Earth, and other Nourishments of this mortal Life.

Psal. civ. 27. All wait upon thee, O Lord, that thou mayest give them their Meat in due Season.

O Eternal God, who feedest with thy Blessing, every living Thing, and satisfiest the lawful Desires of thy Servants, with thy bountiful Goodness, we wretched Sinners, unworthy of the least of thy Benefits, do most humbly beseech thee to be pleased to bless all the Fruits of the Earth, that we, and all thy Servants, may be Partakers of thy Comforts therein, for the Nourishments of this Life.

Give us, O Lord, this Day our daily Bread, prepare our Ground, and prosper our Corn. Bless the Seed-time, with the first and latter Rain, in their due Season, and meet Temperature of Air. Keep our Fruits, while they be in the Earth, from Hail and Thunder, from excessive Droughts, and over-much Rain; from Mildews, and all

all noisome Worms. Send us a joyful Harvest, and give a Blessing to that which we shall reap, that for our Unthankfulness it waste not away without Relief. Increase our Cattle, with all our other Provisions, which we shall carefully labour for. Replenish our Basket, and bless our Store, that we may have wherewith as to furnish ourselves, so to give some Relief to others. Protect our Servants and Work-folks, that they may be strong to labour, wise to forecast, and faithful in their Business. Keep our Granaries, Barns, and Store-houses, from Fire and boisterous Winds, Thieves, and sudden Inundations: Prosper our Works and Travels, whether by Sea or Land, and bless and prosper them that any way labour for any of those Things which we shall have occasion to use.

Send Remedy, O Lord. for all Hardness and Misery; turn our Dearth into Cheapness, and our Scarcity into Plenty. Open the Hearts of rich Men, to whom thou hast given much, that they may have a charitable Respect of the Poor at all Times. Help us, O Lord, and give us such Things as we may stand in need of, and make us desire such Things only, as may be pleasing unto thee; to search them wisely, and find them easily. Oppress us not with too much Poverty, neither puff us up with too much Plenty, but give us such a competent Store of Things, as is necessary for our Life, and give us Grace to use them soberly, to thy Glory and our Comfort, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A Prayer for Friends and Benefactors.

1 Pet. iv. 8. Charity shall cover the Multitude of Sins.

O Lord GOD, who hast said, That he that hath given to the Poor, lendeth unto the Lord, and look, what he layeth out, it shall be paid him again? We beseech thee to be gracious and merciful unto all those for whom we are bound to pray by Nature, by Desert, or any other Duty whatsoever; all our Benefactors, and Friends alive, even all those, our Parents, Kinsfolks, and others, which have brought us up, taught, promoted, or any Way relieved us. Bless them with all Blessings that have done Good, either to our Bodies with temporal Benefits, or our Souls with profitable Instructions. Bless their Estates, that in their godly Disposition, they may always have wherewithal to comfort and relieve others at their Discretion.

Give them the Consolation of the Holy Ghost, to the keeping of Faith and a good Conscience. And as they have shewed Mercy

Mercy to us, and comforted us ; so, Lord, help and comfort them in their greatest Need, that both they and their Families may both have Comfort in their Estate and Condition here, and find Mercy with thy Son, our Saviour Jesus, at the latter End.

Lord, let all their Alms-deeds and Prayers, be always in thy Sight, as those of Cornelius, that as they have been unto us an Odour, that smelleth sweet, whereby we have received Plenty, and been filled ; so they may be as Sacrifices acceptable and pleasant unto thee. Vouchsafe us thy Grace, O Lord, that we be not guilty of any Ingratitude towards them, but rather ready, according to our Abilities, to recompence them, if Need require.

Let not that which they have bestowed upon us, be cast away ; but make it fruitful, and us worthy of it. Grant this, O thou God, which doth Good both to the Just and Unjust, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Another

Another in Time of War.

Pfal. lxxiv. 18. Remember this, that the Enemy hath reproached thee, O Lord; and that the foolish People hath blasphemed thy Name.

O GOD, mighty in Battle, we beseech thee, bear not in Mind our vile Deserts, but of thy Mercy pity thy poor afflicted, endangered, and persecuted Church; consider and behold, how they which hate thy Sanctuary, are now up in Arms to root us out of the Earth, for our Profession of the Truth: Therefore, O Lord, we pray thee maintain thine own Cause. Bless our Forces by Sea and Land, and grant to the People one Heart, one Mind, and one Strength. Give unto the Counsellors and Captains Wisdom and Courage, wisely to foresee, and valiantly to defeat the Devices of their Enemies. Keep all the Soldiers from Treason and Treachery, the Leaders from wrong Plots, the People from Tumults, and all of them from those Sins and Enormities that follow the Camp, and the Evils that may justly follow the same.

Strengthen, O Lord, and lift up the Hand of Moses, and the Weapons of the Church, Prayers and Tears, that our Fasting and Prayer may be heard, and Israel may may have the Victory. Put Sisera to flight in thy good Time; and rather than he return to do Mischief, bring him to his End by a Hand unlooked for. Turn the Weapons of him and his Followers into their own Bosoms; scatter, break, and sink their Ships; destroy their Armies; confound their Forces. Consider, O Lord, the End of our Enterprizes, how we fight for thy Truth, and either reconcile us to our Enemies by thy Spirit, to worship one God, and hold one Truth, or else abate their Pride, and confound them in their Malice, to thy Honour and Glory, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Another in Time of War.

Psal. xxxiv. 7. The Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

O Lord God of Hosts, that has heretofore sundry times miraculously defended us, we beseech thee shew thyself in this needful Time; bless and preserve us, who have reposed our Trust only in thee. Bless our Armies abroad, which are joined together for thy Defence of thy Truth, and the Safety of our Country: Sanctify us likewise, at Home, to please thee, that whatsoever they or we do may prosper.

Be

Be present and President at all their Consultations, and give thou the casting Vote in all Determinations. Suggest heroical Motions into the Hearts of their Leaders: Banish all Heart-burnings and Divisions: And assist them with the Spirit of Unity and Concord, that they may strive all one good Way. Make them wiser than their Enemies: Yea, give them more Experience than the Aged, and better Intelligence, and more sound Advertisements than their Foes. Lord, anoint their Shields, bless their Sword, hallow and consecrate all their Weapons and Engines of War, with happy Success to do thy Will.

Bless the Season of the Year unto them, and sweeten the close Air in their Multitude, that neither Sun nor Moon annoy them, nor Alteration of the Diet, or of Place, disable them from their Service. Command the Winds and Sea to favour them, and let the Land speak Peace unto them. O Lord, disappoint the Counsels and Power of thine Enemies, and make a joyful Peace for thy Servants, through Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour.

Amen.

A Prayer for Comfort to the Sick Persons.

Hosea vi. 1. Come and let us return unto the Lord: For he hath torn, and he will heal us: He hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

Most gracious Lord God, and loving Father, who givest Health, to make us the better to acknowledge thee, and thy Liberality towards us, and sometimes sends Sickness to recal us to Amendment, when we have sinned against thee: We thy humble Servants, for this and all thy Servants thus afflicted, do humbly beseech thee, not to enter into a severe Judgment with him for his Life and Condition, but in Remembrance of thine own Mercy to forgive him his Sins, and upon the Satisfaction of thy Son, to acquit him of thy Judgments; O Lord, grant him a true Zeal of thy holy Name, and all Affections agreeable to thy blessed Will, that he may rightly receive the gracious Offers of thy great Mercy: Qualify, Lord, all these Troubles which either the Grievousness of his Sins remembered, or the Bitterness of his Pangs sustained, the Subtilty of the common Enemy, or the Fear of Death, may bring upon him, and lay no more upon him, O Lord, than he shall be able to bear.

bear. Speak comfortably unto his Soul, as thou hast done unto all those that have sought for Comfort in the like Extremities or Tribulations. Dispose and move his Heart to receive this thy fatherly Correction, and gracious Visitation, with the Patience of Job, the Faith of Abraham, the Joy of Paul, the Courage of Peter, and a true Submission to thy blessed Will, either for Life or Death; and though that these outward Senses, the Tongue and Voice, be not so quick as they have been to praise thee, and pray unto thee, yet Lord, we beseech thee, stir up his Heart, inflame and inspire his Mind to perform all such Things as thou requirest, and may be profitable for his Soul, in this Combat and Extremity.

Apply, O Lord, the holy and wholesome Medicines of thy Son's Passions, Death and Resurrection, unto the Soul of this poor Creature, against the Extremity of Fear, Faintness, Doubt, and Desperation. Take away the Extremity of his Pain, mitigate his Sorrows, make his Bed, wipe away all his Tears from his Eyes, and ease his careful Conscience. Comfort him at the Hour of his Departure; when thou shalt call, open to him the Gate of Mercy; open thine Arms to receive him into thy Favour, that when the Time is come, he may go to the Grave in Peace, being upholden by thee, in the Assurance of a free Pardon for all his Sins, and the Hope of a joyful Resurrection. And in the mean Time, O Lord, settle his Spirits, that they do not wander or fly out into any unruly Motions. Continue his Remembrance, that he may not forget thee, but daily and hourly have thee in Mind, which art the Anchor of his Safety. Keep his Tongue from all vain and idle Talk, his Heart from all Fears, and protect him safe under thy Wing. Be merciful unto us, who, as feeling Members of one Body, adore thy holy Name, and implore thy Divine Help for this thy Servant; and let this Example teach us more Humility, Fear, and Reverence towards thee, now and ever. Hear our Prayers, O Lord, for thy dear Son Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

Another for Comfort to the Sick.

James v. 15. The Prayer of Faith shall save the Sick, and the Lord shall raise him up: And if he have committed Sins, they shall be forgiven him.

O Lord God, who both in Sicknes and in Health, hast appointed us to pray one for another, promising a Blessing in the greatest Extremities: We poor Sinners ners do present ourselves before thy Majesty, in the Behalf of this thy poor Servant, that lieth visited under thy Hand: Good Lord, we beseech thee, seal in his Heart, by thy Holy Spirit, the Forgiveness of all Sins. Let the sweet Feeling and Taste of a lively Faith, dispel all the filthy Corruptions that are in him, that his Body and Soul may be presented pure and undefiled unto thee, in the Blood of thy Son.

Lord, lay not to his Charge what he hath said, or done amiss, throughout all the whole Course of his Life, but rear him up in Hope, speak comfortably unto his Soul, and lead him by thy Spirit unto the Treasures of thy Mercy. Take from him the Fear and Sorrow of Death; raise the Siege of his spiritual Enemies that are round about him, and give him Strength against all the Assaults of the Devil, that he may have a perfect Victory; let the Knowledge of thee (which he hath learned since thou didst call him) stand him now in stead, and relieve his Faith, that he may have true Repentance, and yield unto thee true Obedience, and hearty Thanks, for whatsoever thou shalt do unto him.

O Lord, give unto him a Taste of thy Glory, and those Joys which thou hast prepared for him, that in the Comfort thereof, he may fight a good Fight, keeping the Faith; and when the Time of his Departure shall come, give him Grace, willingly to forsake this present evil World, to die in thy Favour, and to live with thee for ever. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ his Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer before a Man undertakes a Journey, by Sea or Land.

Exod. xiii. 20, 21. And they took their Journey, and the Lord went before them by Day in a Pillar of a Cloud, to lead them in the Way, and by Night in a Pillar of Fire, to give them Light.

MOST Gracious God, and Keeper of Israel, who preservest our Going out and Coming in, into thy Hands I commit myself, and all that I have, either at Home or Abroad. In the Name of Jesus that was wearied in his Journey, and sat down upon the Well, I beseech thee to direct my Paths in this my Journey, as thou didst Jacob in his Journey to Laban, Jonah at Sea, and the Children of Israel in the Wilderness, and passing over Jordan. Grant me Health, Strength, and Courage, and refresh me when I am weary; keep me from all the Hand of Spoilers, the Slight and Deceit of Thieves and Robbers, and from savage Beasts. Grant that wherefoever

ever I come, I may find godly Men, which may honestly, religiously, and courteously entertain me. Keep me from lewd Company, that I partake not of their Wickedness: But let thy Fear be always before mine Eyes, to avoid all wandering Paths.

Shew me, O Lord, in the Day-time, thy comfortable Pillar of Cloud, and in the Night thy Pillar of Fire, that both Day and Night I may see to escape the Hands of all mine Enemies, and they may be afraid to attempt any Thing against me, when they shall see thy wonderful Protection of me.

Make me a Partaker of all good Prayers: Furnish me with Necessaries while I shall be abroad; as Bread to eat, and Clothes to put on; and when my Business is finished, bring me home again; and grant that I may find my Friends, Wife, Children, and Family, in perfect Health at my Return; yet, O Lord, if thou hast so appointed, that before I return, I must go to my long Home, and die in this Voyage, I beseech thee, that upon whatsoever this Vessel of my Body be split, or whatsoever Tabernacle fall, yet my Soul may be saved, and arrive at the Land of Promise, the everlasting Haven of the Elect, for Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

A Prayer in Time of any present Danger or other Affliction.

Job ii. 10. What? shall we receive Good at the Hand of GOD, and shall we not receive Evil?

O Eternal God, who shuttest and no Man openeth, and openest and no Man shutteth; my humble Request unto thee for myself, and all such as suffer any Cross or Affliction in Body and Mind, that it would please thee to send them Ease and Deliverance, in thy good Time.

For myself, O Lord, I beseech thee give me Grace to acknowledge this grievous Affliction, to be thy fatherly Correction of my Sin, that I may learn to be more careful of my Duty. I thank thee, that thou hast laid no more upon me, nor punished me to my Confusion. I beseech thee, grant me a more patient Mind, and stay thy Hand in due Time, that I may recover my Strength, with Comfort in thee. All is thine, and thou art all; to thee, therefore, do I fly for Succour; for there is none but under thy Wings. The Sorrows of Hell do compass me round about, the Fear of Death is before mine Eyes; Help, O help me! Save me! O save me, for thine own Sake, for thy Son's Sake, for

for thy Mercy's Sake, for I am the Workmanship of thy Hands.

Keep my Senses, Understanding, and Judgment, from every Conceit that tendeth to Fear, Fury, or Distrust in thy Mercy. O Lord, advise and teach me Wisdom, and Moderation in my Grief; yea, with thy Power over-rule, that it be not my Overthrow.

Of thy Mercy, Lord, comfort the appalled Consciences of all that grieve under the Burden of their Sins, fearing the Heaviness of thy Wrath. Have Mercy upon all those whose tender Affections are too nearly touched with the Loss of their Companions, Children, or Friends, and let them not take any Thing to Heart, otherwise than may stand with good Discretion, Reason, and Christian Moderation.

Give thy Comforts and Consolations unto all those, that by any Means suffer Trouble or Torments for the Profession of the Gospel, or the Service of their Sovereign. And if it please thee to detain some under a long Cross, either for thy great Glory, or their further Trial; yet, Lord, let them not be tempted above their Strength, that so they may persevere unto the End.

O Lord, weaken the Power of Satan, and the Tyranny of his Ministers, which either by inward Temptations, or outward Violence, have bred the Woe of thy Servants; and rid them from all their Troubles that they may sing joyful Praises unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

 To such Purpose also, may serve the Prayer of one afflicted in Conscience.

A Prayer in Time of Plague, or other extraordinary Sickness.

i Sam. ii. 6. The Lord killeth and maketh alive; he bringeth down to the Grave, and raiseth up.

O Lord our God, in whose Name standeth our Help, and who, among other Evils, hast promised us, to deliver thy People from the Snare of the Hunter, and the noisome Pestilence; we beseech thee take this Plague away from us; and as the Stench of our Sins hath ascended up into thy Nostrils, to provoke thy Wrath against us, so let our humble Supplications come before thee, to procure our happy and speedy Release from it. Lord, call back thine Angel, and cause him to sheath the Sword again. We are thy Children, the Work of thy Hands: We are sorry for our Sins, which are the Cause of all this, and we purpose Amendment: We are but Men, Dust, and Ashes, not able to bear long; long; therefore, Lord have Mercy upon us, and that soon: Send us Comfort, and suffer us not to perish after so miserable a Sort.

We thank thee, O Lord, that thou hast not left us altogether comfortless without Hope, but hast somewhat withdrawn thy Hand, and spared many Hundreds of us, in Comparison of those whom thou slewest before. And now we rejoice at this Abatement, yet stand in Awe; we presume upon this thy Favour, but with Fear and Trembling: We trust it shall be every Day better, yet we are careful to win it, by pleasing thee. Wherefore, O Lord, we beseech thee bless us, and all those that depend upon us: Set thy saving Mark upon our Houses, as thou didst for the Israelites, and give Order to the Destroyer that he hurt us not. Put thy Strength to our Medicines; guard our Regard which we have of ourselves. Let thy Blessing make the Preservatives of thy Physicians, and our shutting Places of more Security, profitable unto us; and let us not trust too much in outward Means, but chiefly in thy Mercy and Blessing upon them. Keep us down-lying, up-rising, and protect us walking in our Vocations.

Have pity upon our poor distressed Brethren, comfort the desolate Widows, provide for all fatherless Children: Gather us together again, that by these Means are dispersed, and continue thy merciful Work, in diminishing our dead Members, till we justly say in Confidence and Thanks with thy Prophet, We shall not die, but live and declare the Works of the Lord. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer to be used in Time of Thunder and Lightning.

Psal. xviii. 13. The Lord thundered in the Heavens, and the Highest gave his Voice, Hail-stones and Coals of Fire.

O Almighty and eternal God, by whose Power the Mountains smoke, the Heavens tremble, and the Earth shaketh; at whose Anger the Seas roar, the Waters swell, and the fearful Depths are broken up; preserve us, we beseech thee, from thine unsupportable Wrath procured by our Sins; call them not into Judgments, but mercifully forgive them, and look chearfully upon us in Christ Jesus thy Son, and our Advocate: Defend us from all Evil, now threatened in this Storm; make our Habitations like the Land of Goshen, in the Time of the Plague of Egypt, and keep us from sudden and untimely Death. Grant, O Lord, that this great and fearful
Tempest

Tempest of Rain, Thunder, and Lightning, may pass away without doing any Hurt, to the Bodies, Houses, or Goods of us, or any of our Brethren. O Lord hear us, O Lord save us, that with joyful Hearts, we may give Thanks unto thee now and evermore. Amen.

The Antient Prayer, called, O Bountiful JESUS.

O Bountiful Jesus, who art full of Mercy and Truth, have pity upon me, according to thy great Mercy, by the same precious Blood which thou wast content to shed upon the Cross, for us miserable Sinners. I beseech thee, vouchsafe to cast all mine Iniquities out of thy Sight, and despise not me who thus humbly beg of thee, crying and calling upon thy holy Name, a Name of Salvation; for what is Jesus but Saviour?

O GOD, which hast created me, and redeemed me with thine own Blood, suffer me not (whom thou hast made of nothing) to be damned. Let not my Wickedness have Power to destroy me, whom thine Almighty Goodness hath made. I acknowledge that which is thine in me, and that which is not of thee, take that away from me. O Lord, even now, while the Time of Mercy is, have Mercy upon me,
and

110 SUPPLICATIONS, &c. Part II.

let me not be confounded at the Time of thy fearful Judgments.

O good Jesus, although I, a vile Sinner, by thy strict Justice, have deserved to be punished everlastingly for my most grievous Sins, yet, having sure Confidence in the Truth of thy Righteousness, I appeal to thy unspeakable Mercy. I am sure thou wilt have Mercy upon me, like a loving and a merciful Father.

O Lord, what Profit is there in my Blood, if I descend into the Pit of eternal Corruption? For surely they that be dead shall not magnify thee, or any that go down into the Place of Silence. O most merciful Saviour, have mercy upon me.

O Jesus, accept me, a vile Sinner, among the Number of them whom thou hast elected to Salvation. Thou art the Health of all that hope in thee; have mercy upon me, and remit all my Sins; O pour thy Grace into my Heart, endue me with Wisdom, Charity, Chastity, and Humility, and in all my Adversity grant me a holy, inviolable, and stedfast Patience, that I may perfectly love thee, and have my only Delight and Affiance in thee, World without End. Amen.

SUPPLICATIONS OF SAINTS.

PART III.

Queen ELIZABETH's Prayer of Thanksgiving for the Overthrow of the Spanish Navy, sent to invade England, 1588.

 OST Omnipotent Creator, Redeemer, and Conserver, when it seemed a most fit Time to thy worthy Providence to bestow the Workmanship of this World's Globe, with thy rare Judgment;
thou didst divide in four singular Parts,
the Form of all this Mold, which After-time

time hath termed Elements, all they serving to continue in orderly Government of all the Mass : Which all, when of thy most singular Bounty, and never yet seen Care, thou hast this Year made serve for Instruments to daunt our Foes, and confound their Malice ; I most humbly, with bowed Heart, and bended Knees, do tender my humble Acknowledgments, and lowest Thanks : And not in the least, for that the weakest Sex hath been so fortified by the strongest Help, that neither my People need find lack by Weakness, nor Foreigners triumph at my Ruin : Such hath been thy unwonted Grace in my Days, as though Satan had never made Holiday in practising for my Life and State, yet thy mighty Hand hath overspread both with the Shade of thy Wings, so that neither hath been overthrown, nor received Shame, but abide with Blessing, to thy greatest Glory, and their great Ignominy : For which Lord, of thy mere Goodness, grant us Grace to be hourly thankful, and ever mindful. And if it may please thee to grant my Request, give us thy Countenance and Favour in my Days, of like Goodness, that my Years may never see Change of such Grace to me, and especially of this Kingdom : Which, Lord, grant, for thy Son's Sake,

may

may flourish many Ages after my End.
Amen.

Queen Elizabeth's Prayer for the Success of her Navy, 1599.

MOST Omnipotent Maker, Guider of all the World's Mass, that only search-est and fathomest the Bottom of all Hearts Conceits, and in them seest the true Original of all Actions intended: Thou that by thy Foresight dost truly discern how no Malice or Revenge, nor Quittance of Injury, nor Desire of Bloodshed, nor Greediness of Lucre, hath bred the Resolution of our now set out Army; but a heedful Care, and a wary Watch, that no Neglect of Foes, nor Oversurety of Harm, might breed either Danger to us, or Glory to them.

These being the Grounds wherewith thou didst inspire our Mind, we humbly beseech thee, with bended Knees, prosper
the Work, and with the best Forewinds speed the Journey, give the Victory, and make the Return the Advancement of thy Glory, the Triumph of thy Fame, and the Surety of the Realm, with the least Loss of English Blood. To these devout Petitions, Lord, give thy blessed Grant.
Amen.

Queen

Queen Elizabeth's Prayer for her Navy, 1597.

O GOD, All-maker, Keeper, and Guide-er: Experience of thy rarely seen unused, and seldom heard of Goodness, poured in so plentiful Sort upon us oft, breeds now this Boldness to crave, with bended Knees, and Hearts of Humility, thy large Hand of helping Power, to assist with Wonder our just Cause, not founded on Pride's Motion, nor begun on Malice-stock, but as thou best knowest (to whom nought is hid) grounded on our Defence from Wrongs, Hate, and bloody Desires of Conquest.

For since thou hast imparted Means to save that which thou hast given, by injoin-ing of such a People as scorn their Bloodshed where Safety is none, to use all lawful Means to defend themselves: Fortify, dear GOD, such Hearts, in such Sort as their best Parts may be worst, that are the worst, that to the truest Part, meant worst, may redound to a happy Victory, with least Loss to such a Nation, as despise their Lives for their Country's Good, in a good Cause, that all foreign Lands may laud and admire the Omnipotency of thy Works, a Fact alone for thee only to perform! So shall thy Name be spread for Wonders

Wonders wrought, and the faithful incouraged to repose in thy unfathomed Grace, and we that minded nought but Right, be enchanted in thy Bonds for perpetual Slavery, and live and die in the Sacrifices of our Souls, for such obtained Favour: Warrant, dear Lord, all this with thy Command. Amen.

The Housholder's Prayer.

Psal. lv. 22. Cast thy Burden upon the Lord, and he will sustain thee: He shall not suffer the Righteous to be moved.

O Most mighty God, merciful and loving Father, I wretched Sinner come unto thee, in the Name of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, my only Saviour and Redeemer, and most humbly beseech thee to be merciful unto me, and to cast all my Sins out of thy Sight and Remembrance, through the Merits of his bloody Death and Passion. Pour upon me, O Lord, thy holy Spirit of Wisdom and Grace; govern and lead me by thy holy Word, that it may be a Lanthorn to my Feet, and a Light unto my Steps: Shew thy Mercy upon me, and so lighten the natural Blindness and Darknes of my Heart, through thy Grace, that I may be daily renewed by the same Spirit of Grace: By the which,

○

O Lord, purge the Grossness of my Hearing and Understanding, that I may profitably hear, read, and understand thy Word, and heavenly Will, believe and Practice the same in my Life and Conversation, and evermore hold fast the blessed Hope of eternal Life.

Mortify and kill all Vice in me, that my Life may express my Faith in thee: Mercifully hear the humble Suit of thy Servant, and grant me thy Peace all my Days: Graciously pardon all my Infirmities, and defend me in all Dangers of Body, Goods, or Name; but most chiefly my Soul against all Assaults, Temptations, Accusations, subtle Slights, and Baits of that old Enemy of Mankind, Satan, that roaring Lion, ever seeking whom he may devour: Favourably protect and keep all that thou hast given me, Wife, Children, or Servants; and aid me, O Lord, with thy Grace, that I may be able to govern, nourish, and bring them up in thy Fear and Service.

Cast a gracious Eye upon me, and lend me thy directing Hand, that the Labour and Pains, which I am to undertake this Day may prosper, and let all my Dealing be just and true: Bless, O Lord, thy universal Church; and perfect the Work which thou hast begun amongst us. Bear our most gracious KING, and all his Princely Princely PROGENY, always in thine own Bosom, and set thine Eyes always upon him for Good. Let the Spirit of Knowledge and Holiness remain in his Ministers; bless all his Councils with Wisdom and Discretion, his Nobles with Fortitude and Courage, his Judges with Justice and Mercy, his Magistrates with Diligence and Faithfulness, His People with Fear and Obedience, that we may all with one Mind, and one Mouth, say with the Prophet, He that is mighty, hath done great Things for us, and holy is his Name. Amen.

Another for the Housholders.

Ephef. vi. 9. Know that your Master also is in Heaven, neither is there Respect of Persons with him.

LEad me, O Lord, in the Way of thy Truth and Righteousness, and govern all mine Actions to thy Glory, the Good of thy Church, and the Discharge of my Duty; defend and deliver me from all Temptations, from all mine Enemies, and from all Deceits and Dangers. Kindle in my Heart, and Mind, a fervent Zeal of thy holy Word, that I may understand and know thy Will, and walk in thy Ways; strengthen me with thy holy Spirit, boldly
and

and constantly to profess the Honour and Service of thy holy Name, least, at any Time, thro' Fear of worldly Afflictions, I fall from thee.

Give me a contented Mind with my Estate, and such Blessings as thou, O Lord, of thy bountiful Goodness and Mercy hath bestowed upon me, that I may use them, and be thankful for them. Grant me Patience, in all my Thoughts and Afflictions, that I may neither grudge at thy fatherly Corrections, knowing them to be Tokens of thy Love, and Instruments of my Exercise and Trial; neither seek Revenge of my Wrongs, knowing Vengeance to be thine, and that thou wilt award it in due Season.

Keep my Mind from all evil Thoughts, my Tongue from lewd and vile Breeches, my Body and every Member thereof, from all sinful Actions. Let all my Love, my Faith and Hope, my Delight and Confidence, only and always be in thee. Open my Heart to have pity upon my poor Brethren; give me the Gift of Chastity, that I may possess my Vessel in Holiness and Honour, and not in the Lust of Concupiscence, and as the Heathen do, which know not God.

Give me, O Lord, Sorrow for my Sins, Thankfulness for thy Benefits, Fear of thy Judgments, and Love of thy Mercies :
And

And teach me to bring up my Children, and govern my Servants in good Order and godly Discipline, according to thy holy Ordinances; and because by thy Grace I am what I am, let thy Demands be no greater than thou hast given me Grace to perform. O LORD GOD, pardon and forgive all my Sins, and grant me Grace to live in thy Fear, and die in thy Favour, that I may rise to live with my blessed Lord Jesus, and evermore dwell with him in thy most glorious and joyful Kingdom, the only Things I desire and hope for, through the Merits of the same Jesus Christ thy only Son, and my only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Wife's Prayer for her Husband, in Absence, or otherwise.

Pfal. xxxvii. 4. Delight thyself also in the Lord, and he shall give thee the Desire of thy Heart.

O LORD GOD, who hast made every married Couple one Flesh, and hast ordained that they should be of one Mind and Judgment, and careful one for another, as Members one of another: I beseech thee, lead me and my Husband in the Way of thy Truth and Righteousness; govern
I all

all our Actions to thy Glory, the Good of thy Church, and the Discharge of our Duties. Defend and deliver us, O Lord, from all Temptations, from all our Enemies, and from all Deceits and Dangers here or elsewhere.

Grant my Husband [being abroad] for to prosper in his Business, and send him a healthful and happy Return Home, that I, who without him am sorrowful in myself, and should be a Stranger to the World if he were not, may with him live in the Estate of thine honourable Ordinance, in Peace and Comfort, and always, for thy great Mercy and Goodness, praise thy most holy Name.

Grant us both Grace, O Lord, one to love and cherish the other, and to be faithful and dutiful one towards the other; and give us both the Gift of Chastity and Sobriety, that both in Body and Life we may live a pure Life, bringing up our Children, and governing our Servants with godly Discipline and good Order, in and according to thy holy Word.

O Lord, pardon and forgive both of us all our Sins, and grant us both Grace to love, honour, fear, and serve thee all the Days of this our miserable and sinful Life, that in this Life we may have Comfort in that which thou hast given us; and after our Deaths we may receive the Fruits of
that

that Hope, which we have laid up in thy Mercies, through the Merits and Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Widow's Prayer.

Deut. x. 18. The Lord doth execute the Judgment of the Fatherless and Widow, and loveth the Stranger in giving him Food and Raiment.

O Lord GOD, who art near touched with a Care of the Afflicted, and despisest not the Widow when she poureth out her Prayers before thee; I beseech thee to have Compassion upon me, a poor and desolate Widow. And whereas the Bands of Death have made a Separation between me and my Husband, who was my Head, and the best Stay I had in this World next unto thee; I beseech thee, let me not take this Cross impatiently, but trust in thy Goodness, that nothing may be able to separate me from thee, which art mine only Stay, and the Joy of my Soul. Preserve me, Lord, from the Paws of ravenous and greedy Cormorants, which lie in wait to supplant the Weakest, and devour our Houses, under the Pretence of Godliness, and Colour of Right. Grant, that in the Sight of all Governors and G Judges,

Judges, I may find Favour, and equal Dealing in my Suits and Complaints, against all violent Oppressors.

Give unto all Men, willing and ready Minds to do me Good, and open their Hearts to help and pleasure me in all reasonable Demands : Provide for me, by ministering Food and Raiment fit for my Estate ; have Pity upon me in all my Necessities, and stretch out thy Hand to deliver me.

Bless me, as thou didst that poor Woman of Sarepta, that the small Thing which thou hast given me, may serve to supply the necessary Uses of me and mine ; dispose the Hearts of my Children and Servants, to Obedience, Peace, and Holiness, that I, who am the weakest Vessel, deprived of him whose Countenance should have kept them in Awe, may, by thy Help, bring them up in godly Discipline. Give me the Graces of thy Holy Spirit, that at all Times, and in all Afflictions, I may trust in thee, and continue in Prayers and Supplications Day and Night, but such as besit a modest Matron, and the Handmaid of the Lord ; for Jesus Christ's Sake our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

The Prayer of Women with Child.

John xvi. 21. A Woman when she is in Travail hath Sorrow, because her Hour is come.

O Lord GOD, by whose Decree, for the Offences of our first Parents, we bear in our Womb, and bring forth Children in Pain and Sorrow, be merciful unto me, that now feel the Accomplishment of that Sentence in myself: And as thou hast vouchsafed me this Blessing to conceive in my Womb, that which thou has wrought until this Time; so grant, that in due Time, I may see the Fruit of my Body, safe, sound, and perfect, without Blemish or Deformity.

Keep me, O Lord, from all untimely Birth; grant that through Prayer, Faith, and Patience, I may escape all sudden Fears, and unadvised Thoughts. Comfort me when I shall draw near unto my hard Labour, when I shall fall into those Terrors, Horrors, and Pangs, which accompany that Hour; shew thy Mercy upon me and my Babe, that my Sins may be forgiven me, and that it may not be punished for my Offences: Give me Patience, that I be not too fearful and unruly, but that I may remember what Modesty becometh a Woman in those Dangers, and repose all my Assistance in thee ; O Lord, send me Help, and preserve me, that I perish not.

Grant me, O Lord, safe Deliverance in due time, and make me a joyful Mother when that Hour cometh ; let not my Sins so many be called in Question either now, or at that Instant ; but forget, O Lord, and forgive them ; bless my poor Infant, and lodge it in the Virtue of thy Covenant, and when thou shalt be pleased to call it into open Light, give me Wisdom and Strength to bring it up in thy Fear, and (as it were) to travail again with it, till it be born again unto a heavenly Life, to thy greater Glory, and my further Joy, through Jesus Christ our only Lord. Amen.

The Midwife's Prayer.

Pfal. lxxviii. 35. O God, wonderful thou art in thy holy Places ; even the God of Israel, he will give Strength and Power unto this People ; blessed be God.

O Lord God, who only hast Power to take all Children out of their Mother's Wombs, and to bring them into the Light of this World : I, thy unworthy Servant, whom thou hast deputed to this great Business, for the Help and Comfort of many in their Extremities, do must humbly, on my bended Knees, beseech thee to vouchvouchsafe me thy gracious Assistance in the same.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, and in all mine Actions, let me have thy Fear before mine Eyes, that I may be careful both for Rich and Poor, to do good, and not hurt; to save Life, and not to destroy. Help mine Infirmities and Imperfections, that I be neither too fearful nor too violent in doing my Duty; and grant me Skill and Judgment, happily to finish every Work that I shall undertake.

Give me, O Lord, an understanding and tender Heart; a ready, steady, and gentle Hand, a watchful Eye, and willing Mind. Mercifully look upon me, O Lord, that whensoever I shall be called to do my Office, either by Night or Day, to the Sick, or to the Sound, I may be defended from all bodily Harms, and preserved from the Infection of all contagious Diseases, by thy gracious Favour. Prosper, O Lord, the Works of my Hands, O prosper thou my Handy-works, that I may do all Things to thy Glory, the Comfort of all good Women, and mine own Credit, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer in Time of Women's Travail.

Pfal. xc. 16. Let thy Work, O Lord, appear unto thy Servants, and thy Glory unto their Children.

O Gracious God, and loving Father, of whom the whole Family of Heaven and Earth is named, we beseech thee mercifully hear the Voice of all thy Handmaids here assembled in thy Name, for the Help of this our Sister in her Agony now approaching: Lord, look upon her in Mercy, mitigate the Judgment thou hast laid upon her, and all Women for Sin. Give her Courage of Heart, and Strength of Body, to bear the Pangs of her Labour so fearful, hard, and vehement. Sweeten them with the Drops of thy Mercy, and qualify them by thy gracious Power: Pardon her Offences, and receive her Prayers.

Loving Father, give her Patience and Willingness to be advised and ordered by her Friends, in so great a Work; that she may remember, that as in Justice thou hast greatly increased her Sorrows and Conceptions, so it is thy Will to have a holy Seed brought forth into the World, which being sanctified by thy Grace, may be consecrated here to such godly Services as thou hast appointed, and afterwards made Par-

Partaker of thy Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven.

And therefore, O Lord, we pray thee, bless her, and the Fruit of her Womb; let thy Mercy be no less shewed in the Birth, than in the forming and fashioning of that she beareth; guide all our Hands that are about her, and lay to thy helping Hand with us. Give her an easy and speedy Deliverance. But if it be thy Will to lay any great Weight of thy Wrath upon her, according to thy Doom, yet, good Lord, we beseech thee, let thy Holy Spirit so comfort her inwardly with thy Promises made to all, and thy Goodness shewed to others, that neither her natural Frailty, nor the Temptations of Satan, nor the Extremities of her Throws cause her to faint.

O Lord, we pray thee, comfort her, help her, ease her, finish thy Work in her, O thou Preserver of Mankind, that she being safely delivered, and her Babe preserved, they may both live, grow, and prosper in Health and Strength, to thy Will and Pleasure, and we altogether praise thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour: In whose Name we conclude our Prayers, saying,

Our Father, &c.

A Prayer after the Deliverance of Women.

Pfal. cxxvii. 3. Lo, Children are an Heritage of the Lord, and the Fruit of the Womb is his Reward.

O Lord GOD, by whom all Men and Women are wonderfully and fearfully made, we give thee most humble Thanks, that in thy Judgment towards this our Sister, thou hast remembered Mercy, in giving her safe Deliverance, together with a comely Fruit of her Body: Good Lord, we pray thee continue thy great Goodness towards her, and keep her from all further Annoyance and Dangers of Childbed. Preserve her Night and Day, sleeping and waking, that so, in her Time, she may be restored to her former Health and Strength, and walk in her Vocation, according to thy Will with Thanksgiving.

Give thy Blessing to the Infant now born, that it may, in due Time, increase in all Wisdom, Stature, and Favour with thee and Men; that it may be Partaker of the sacred Seal of thy holy Baptism, and be born a new by the holy Power of the Spirit; live a holy sanctified Life in this World, and afterwards be made an Heir of everlasting Life. O Lord, bless the Mother ther also for the Child's Good, that she may have Means and Strength to bring it up in thy Fear, and use all such good Endeavours as become a careful and natural Mother.

Lord, give thy Grace to all us which have been Eye-Witnesse of this thy Mercy and Goodness; and let this, and all other thy Works, daily put us in Mind to be thankful unto thee for our Creation, Preservation, and all other thy good Gifts; to call upon thee, love and fear thee, walking in thy Sight, in all Sobriety, Chastity, and Godliness, from this Day forward for evermore, for Jesus Christ's Sake.
Amen.

The Childrens Prayer, in their Father's Life-time.

Prov. x. 1. A Wise Son maketh a glad Father; but a Foolish Son is the Heaviness of his Mother.

O Heavenly Father, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of all that believe in him, endue me, I beseech thee, with thy holy Spirit, that I may be a Child of thy heavenly Family, regenerated and made a new Creature in the same Christ Jesus our Saviour. Make me, by all means, to honour my Parents, after the Example of thy Son our Saviour, and not by any means to breed their Sorrow and Grief, that when thou shalt see it good to make me ancient, and bless me with Children, that I may have Joy in them by their Obedience and Holiness.

Join, O Lord, unto the Towardness of my Nature, the Aid of thy Grace, that I be not seduced by false Teachers to Corruption, either in Faith or Manners, but that all my Understanding and Conceits may tend to the Good of my Soul, and the Bettering of my Life.

Restrain, O Lord, the Untamedness of my Youth, which, at this Time, is wont to begin to shew itself, that I never pass the Limits of thy good Pleasure. Keep me from wandering Concupiscence and Idleness, from wicked Company, and naughty Fellowship.

Forgive me all the Misdemeanours which I have at any Time committed against thee and my Parents; and give me Ability and Grace to help them in their weakest Age and greatest Need, remembering the Pains which my Mother endured for me, and the Charges of my Father. Make me obedient unto them, and all other my Betters, Teachers, and Governors: Help me in all Dangers and Necessities, and grant me thy Favour all the Days of my Life,
and

and thy Kingdom at the End, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

Another Prayer of Children.

Pfal. xxxvii. 5. Commit thy Ways unto the Lord, trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

O Lord God, I beseech thee to lead my Parents in the Way of thy Truth and Righteousness; govern all their Actions to thy Glory, the Good of the Church, and the Discharge of their Duties. Defend and deliver them from all their Enemies, and from all Deceit and Dangers; that I, who am a Child in Age, Understanding, and Discretion, may, by thy godly Wisdom, Care, and Painfulness, be brought up in all godly Instructions, Nurture, and good Order, and so live and serve thee in Righteousness and Holiness all my Days.

Grant me, O Lord, an obedient and dutiful Mind, not only towards my Parents, but to all such as it shall please them to make Instructors and Rulers over me, that I may submit myself to their godly Admonitions and Government. Incline my Heart, now in my tender Years, to seek for Wisdom and good Learning, with all Diligence. Preserve me from evil Ways and lewd Company.

Mortify, O Lord, the raging Lusts and Follies of youthful Affections; O Lord, pardon and forgive me all my Sins, that I may live in thy Fear, and die in thy Favour, and so receive the Inheritance of that Place, that thou in Heaven hast prepared for me, through Jesus Christ my Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Orphan's or Fatherless Child's Prayer.

Psal. xxvii. 10. When my Father and Mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

O Lord God, the Succour of all them that are in Distress, and Father of the Fatherless; I, poor Orphan, by thine Appointment, deprived of my Parents, and chiefest Stay in this World, beseech thee to hear my Desire, and to set thine Eyes upon me for Good. Have Pity upon me, O Lord, and in all Perils and Necessities, stretch out thy helping Hand, and deliver me; appoint me faithful Patrons and Guardians, which will be touched with an earnest Care of my Welfare, that I may be brought up in thy Fear, unto every good Work.

Give

Give me Grace to be obedient unto those that have the Over-sight of me, to hearken to good Counsel, to fear thee, and to avoid evil Company.

Grant that I may find Favour and upright Dealings at the Hands of them that have the Over-sight of me, and before all others the Governors and Judges whatsoever. Let me not be oppressed by the Mighty, or seduced by the Crafty and Subtle; but deliver me from the greedy and devouring Cormorants, and dissembling Friends, that would make a Prey of me.

Let me not run to and fro to seek my Bread, but provide for me, O Lord, I pray thee, Food and Raiment; and so furnish me in this short Time of my Pilgrimage, that I may have a competent Living. Bless my Studies and Endeavours, increase my Years and Knowledge, to fit always my Estate and Calling; direct me with thy Spirit, and bless me now and evermore, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

The Scholar's Prayer.

Prov. vi. 23. The Commandment is a Lamp, and the Law is Light; and Reproofs of Instruction are the Way of Life.

O Lord G O D, who hast said, If any Man lack Wisdom, let him ask it of G O D, who giveth unto all Men liberally and reproacheth no Man, and it shall be given him; I beseech thee, breathe into my Soul the Spirit of Understanding, that in my Child-hood I may learn, and as I grow further into Years, I may practise, the Study of those Things only, that are agreeable to thy Laws. Have mercy upon me, and lighten my Understanding with the Beams of thy Divine Wisdom, that I may have Judgment to make the best Choice; Wit and Capacity to conceive, and Memory to retain and bear away, all such good Things as I shall either hear or read.

Lord, hew and square the rough Table of my Heart, prepare it and make it smooth, and fit to receive into it the Impressions of thy Divine Grace and Wisdom. Grant that I may always carefully seek for the Pearls of true Knowledge, and obediently submit myself to all those that are my Teachers, and have the Oversight of me. Give me such a Desire to attain unto Knowledge, that my Study, through thy working, may be Pleasure unto me; and that I may not wilfully lose, or vainly bestow that precious Time which never can be called again. Pour into me thy holy Spirit, that all my Travail and Pains in Study being blessed by thee, I may plentifully reap the Fruit of my Labours, and be thankful to thee.

O loving Father, be thou my Schoolmaster to instruct me, and let all my Studies be referred to the right End, that I be neither infected with Heresy, nor Partaker of any Sect or Schism: Lord, when I shall have attained unto any Measure of Knowledge, let it not puff me up to stand high in my own Conceit, or be proud of thy Gifts; but let me be wise unto Sobriety, and carry myself humbly, lowly, and modestly, and so order all my Studies and Endeavours, good Father, that I may firmly resolve, speedily perform, and constantly continue in doing any Thing that is agreeable to thy Will; that so every Thing may serve me for my Furtherance to a godly and virtuous Life, and the Discharge of a good Conscience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Soldier's Prayer.

Exod. xv. 3. The Lord is a Man of War, his Name is Jehovah.

O Lord G O D of Hosts, who teacheſt my Hands to fight, and my Fingers to battle, I humbly beſeech thee to have Mercy upon me, that am ſubject to ſo many Dangers every Day, that I fall not before mine Enemies : Touch my Heart, that I may truly feel my Sins, and worthily lament them before thy Majeſty. And ſince I have undertaken this Service, not for any Covetouſneſs or Revenge of Blood, but in Obedience to my Prince, and to defend a righteous Cauſe, ſuffer me not, I beſeech, to give my Members as Weapons of Unrighteouſneſs unto Sin, but to look carefully unto my Ways, ſeeking to diſcharge my Duty towards thee, and to acquit myſelf in all Loyalty towards my Prince.

O Lord, gird me with Strength, and make my way upright ; conduct me with thy Hand, encourage me with the Trumpet of thy Word ; arm me with Faith and Hope to thee-ward, and ſtrengthen me to the Combat ; bleſs all our Company in our Attempts, and ſuggeſt unto us the beſt Means to ſave ourſelves, and defeat
the

the Purposes of our Enemies. Arm us with thy Grace that we may manfully fight in thy Quarrel; make our Name fearful to our Enemies, and abate their Pride: Range us within the Limits of Truth and Honesty, that we be not given to those Vices which accompany the War, vile Affections, inordinate Motions, and merciless Cruelties.

Lord, it's nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with few: Help us, O Lord, our God, for we rest on thee, and in thy Name we go against this Multitude: O Lord, thou art our God, let no Man prevail against thee. Keep us, we beseech thee, from Treason, Mutinies, and Conspiracies, either against our Prince or Captains: Lord, hear the Mourning of all Captives, detained in the Hands of their Enemies, and work Means for their Deliverance; and if it please thee at any Time to lay that Cross upon us, or otherwise to expose us to Death in the Field, then Lord keep us in thy Faith, that we may live and die thy Soldiers, fighting the good Fight of Hope fixed in thee, and die in thy Favour, for Jesus Christ his Sake. Amen.

The Servant's Prayer.

1 Cor. vii. 22. He that is called in the Lord, being a Servant, is the Lord's Freeman.

O Lord GOD, who hast made us all one in Jesus Christ, whether we be bond or free, I beseech thee, grant me a contented Mind, that, during the Time of my Bondage, I be not ashamed of that Condition of Life, wherein thou hast plac'd me: Clothe me in the Livery of a true Christian, and grant me always to bear the Mind of an honest Man.

Give me Grace to obey, and be subject to my earthly Masters, with all Fear, whether they be good and courteous, or evil and froward, and to perform their Designs, which cross not thy Commandments.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to send me an understanding Heart to manage my Business aright, and make me faithful withial, to be circumspect and diligent, to do all Things for the best: Grant me a single and true Heart, without Hypocrisy and Dissimulation, that I do not pass over my Years with an Eye-servise, as a Man-pleaser, but justly and sincerely, that I may, in my Time, procure that Christian Liberty and Freedom which I serve for.

Lord,

Lord, bless my Master in all his Affairs and Dealings; let him not be subject to any Danger or Wrong from others; nor possessed with any Thought of Cruelty towards them that labour faithfully and truly for him. Strengthen my Body to perform that Business that I am appointed unto, and keep me from all Murmuring and Grudging against any of my Betters, and envious detracting from the Estimation of others.

Especially, O Lord, keep me from evil Company, that I be neither inticed to spend wastefully, or embezzle any thing committed to my Custody, nor hearken unto the Persuasion of any such as wish not well to my Lord and Master.

Send Peace and Quietness between me and my Fellows, that in Love and Kindness we may all, with one Heart and one Mind, constantly and chearfully join together, to follow our Master's Business, and serve thee, and after this Life become Freemen of the New Jerusalem in Heaven, in the blessed Company of all faithful People, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

Another of the same.

Eph. vi. 8. Whatever good Thing any Man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

O Lord, our heavenly Master, I do beseech thee, lead me in the Way of thy Truth and Righteousness: Govern all mine Actions to thy Glory, the Good of thy Church, and the Discharge of my Duty: Defend and deliver me, O Lord, from all Temptations, from all mine Enemies, and from all Deceits and Dangers.

Bless, O Lord, I beseech thee, my Lord, my Master and Mistress, with all heavenly Wisdom and Understanding, and Godliness, and with worldly Wealth and Happiness, that I, who am thy Servant, may by them, and under them, receive not only the spiritual Food of my Soul, but also the temporal Sustenance of my Body; doing my Service, not outwardly, as desiring to please Men, but with Singleness of Mind from the Heart, as fearing thee, O Lord my God; and whereby I may receive that Reward which thou hast promised.

Give me, O Lord, an obedient and dutiful Mind towards them, that I may submit myself to their honest and lawful Commandmandments, and do them true and faithful Service, with all Humbleness and Patience.

Grant me Grace, O Lord, to frame my Life according to thy holy Word. Nourish mutual Love and Good-will between me and my Fellows: Preserve me from all evil Ways, lewd Company, and Idleness: Keep my Mind from all evil Thoughts, my Tongue from lewd and vain Speeches; and my Body, and every Member thereof, from all sinful Actions: Mortify in me, Lord, the raging Lusts and Follies of youthful Affections: O Lord, pardon and forgive me all my Sins, and grant me Grace to love, honour, and serve thee in Holiness and Righteousness all my Days, that I may glorify thee in this World, and be glorified of thee in the World to come, through Jesus Christ my only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Maid's Prayer.

1 Sam. xxv. 24. Let thy Hand-maid, I pray thee, speak in thine Audience, and bear the Words of thine Hand-maid.

Blessed Lord, who, in former-time, hast not despised the low Estate of Hand-maids, when they sought unto thee, vouchsafe to lend thine Ear to the hearty Desires

Desires of me thy poor Servant: Consider, O Lord, that in the Labour of Body and Mind, I am the weaker Vessel, of less Capacity, and more Infirmary; and bestow upon my Youth much competent Strength, that I may grow in Stature, Wisdom, and Favour, with thee and Man. As I grow up in Years, so Lord, let me grow in Grace: Crown my Virginity with chaste and religious Thoughts, and my Body and Mind with godly Watchfulness, to wait for thy Coming with the wise Virgins.

Give me Grace to think always that a good Name, and honest Reputation is better than any Dowry to a modest Maid. Make my Behaviour meek, my Talk sober, my Body chaste, and keep me from lewd and wanton Company; that I partake not with them in their Follies of Youth: Pardon my fore-past Vanities, and, by the Power of thy Spirit, enable my Weakness to avoid all Evil: Defend me from slanderous and base Tongues, surmizing Minds, and wicked Temptations, I beseech thee.

O Lord, make me faithful and trusty; wise and wary, in ordering of such Goods as are committed to my Custody, by my Master or Mistress, Father or Mother: Marry me unto thee, O Lord, in Righteousness, in Judgment, in Mercy, and
Com-

Compassion; and if it be thy Will hereafter to call me to the honourable Estate of corporal Matrimony, make me follow Rachel in Love, Rebecca in Wisdom, Sarah in Faithfulness and Obedience to my Husband, and all other worthy Matrons, in Modesty and Honesty, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Mariner's Prayer.

Psal. cvii. 23, 24. They that go down to the Sea in Ships, and do Business in great Waters, see the Works of the Lord, and his Wonders in the Deep.

O Lord Go D, who hast thy Way in the Seas, and thy Path in the greatest Waters; and hast appointed as well them as the firm Land, for Men to do their Business in, we beseech thee, that as thou hast ordained the Art of Navigation, for the Comfort and Security of Man, so thou wilt be pleased to bless us and our Labours, our Company, and the Goods that are under our Charge, against such dangerous and perilous Casualties, as our Trade is daily subject to.

And thou, Lord Jesus, who didst vouchsafe to travel by Ship, to preach out of the Ship, and in the Ship, to work Miracles; and once to walk upon the Main,

Main, as on dry Land, we pray thee, still the Raging of the Waters when they arise; put forth thy Hands and save us, when we shall be in Danger, as thou didst the one to thy Disciples, and all the Company in their Ship; and the other for thy Apostle St. Peter, when he was in great Fear, and ready to sink.

O Holy Ghost, who, at the Creation of the Universe, didst graciously rest and move upon the Face of the Waters, vouchsafe us a peaceable Voyage, and send us such Wind and Weather, as may serve us for a safe Passage, whither we are bound for our Business, and a joyful Return, that being done.

O blessed Trinity, one ever living God, save us by Sea and Land, keep us in the violent Whirling of the Wind, in the Bitterness of Frost, Hail, Ice, and Snow, in the Dangers of Fire, and in the fearful Cracks and Flashes of Thunder and Lightning. Defend us from Pirates and all Robbers, which live upon the Spoil of the People, and Labours of honest Men; make good our Provision, both for bodily Food and Furniture of our Ships: Furnish us, succour us, defend us, O God, thou Anchor of our Hope, for thy Glory, and for thy Name's Sake. Amen.

The

The Prayer of one afflicted in Conscience for Sin.

Dan. ix. 19. O Lord hear, O Lord forgive, O Lord hearken and do, defer not, for thine own Sake, O my GOD.

O Merciful God, who, by the sending of thy Son into the World, hast brought to pass that where Sin abounded, there Grace abounded much more. I, a forlorn Wretch, disquieted in Mind, and afflicted in Conscience, for fear of thy Judgments upon my Sin, do with bended Knees, and Tears unfeigned, as a most humble Suppliant, beg and crave of thee some Succour and Relief. Open, O open the Gates of thy Mercy to the Greatness of my Miseries; may an abject Countenance witness my distressed Mind. My Spirit is sorrowful, my Heart is heavy, my Words are stopped with Sighs, and my Complaints are watered with Tears; to thee I hold up my Hands, to thee I lift up my Heart, to thee I pray, requiring of thee Mercy. O Lord, what shall I desire of thee, that deserve nothing at thy Hands? What can I hope for, that am even heartless? Lord, if thou hast said, Shall not my Soul be avenged on such a one as this! Remember thy Promise elsewhere, I will have Mercy on him that could find no Mercy; and let it light upon me. If Satan presume, God hath forsaken him; think upon the Decree, for the Seed of the Woman and the Power of thy Son's Passion defeat all the Devices of the Devil against me.

H

on

O Lord, hear me speedily, if thou do not, then I am out of Hope; my Conscience accuseth me, my Memory gives Evidence against me, and my Reason condemns me; my Spirit is weary of this Bondage, and I have bid my Life farewell. My Conscience is clogged; when I behold the bloody Wounds of my Soul, the Voice of Joy and Mirth is gone from me, I am deeply plunged in Discomfort; I have neither Worth to appease thy Wrath, nor Patience to endure thy Indignation: I pray thee, therefore, send the Comfort of thy holy Spirit into my Heart, and strengthen my Faith, that I be not swallowed up with overmuch Heaviness. O Lord, let thy Majesty appear in thy Mercy; forgive me my Sins, the unhappy Ground of all this Woe, and I am recovered of all mine Infirmities. Try not the Law with me, lest I come to Judgment. Sanctify all those good Means unto me wherein I seek Relief, as Prayer, Conference, Reading and Hearing of thy Holy Word. Moderate and mitigate my Vexation, increase Faith, establish Hope, grant Patience, and keep me from Despair. Take away this
Cup

Cup from me, if it be thy Will, if not, suffer me not to be tempted above my Strength.

I have an humble and contrite Heart, O Lord, look upon me. I go mourning all the Day long, and am like unto him that is at the Point to die: O Lord, comfort me: Thou that wilt not break a bruised Reed, spare me. O thou that delightest not in the Death of a Sinner, revive me. Though my Heart condemn me, yet, good Lord, thou that art greater than my Heart, acquit me, relieve me, release me, and say unto my Soul, I am thy Salvation. Hearken, Lord, unto my Prayer, and grant me my Requests, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

The Sick Man's Prayer.

Job i. 21. Naked came I out of my Mother's Womb, and naked shall I return thither.

O Loving Lord, and most holy Father, I, poor Wretch thy Servant, feeling in this Sickness, which thou hast laid upon me, the Punishment of that Corruption and Transgression that is in me, and all Flesh, do most willingly submit myself to thy holy Ordinance, to bear this Cross, and to taste of this bitter Cup, which I have deserved, and much more, so that I may follow thee whither thou art gone.

Therefore, O Lord, since thou hast not yet called me to the Bar of Death, but sent thy Heralds to summon me to a Trial; I beseech thee, look on me with thine Eye of merciful Pity, and help me in this Day of Visitation: Pour out thine Oil of Grace into my wounded Conscience; purge my defiled Soul, forgive me all my Sins, and give me competent Comfort and Consolation in this Distress. Let me not die e'er I begin to live; give me Time to repent, and Occasion to amend: But if thou wilt needs put any more of thy Wine of Correction into my festered Sores, lay no more, O Lord, upon me, than I shall be able to bear: Make good unto me that Goodness, which thou hast granted me under the great Seal of thy Promise. Supply my Want, pardon my Sins, and arm me against all Temptations.

I offer here unto thee, O Lord, a penitent Heart for the Time past, and promise, through thy Grace, Amendment, if it shall please thee to draw out the Thread of my Life any longer; yet neither desire I the Continuance of this Mortality, nor a more speedy Deliverance, otherwise than as thou wilt. Lord, look not on my Merits, for they are either none, or not good; nor upon my Life, for it hath been nought;
but

but look upon Christ thy dear Son, who, from the Altar of the Cross, cried unto thee on my Behalf, and accept his Satisfaction for my Sins.

Arm me with Patience to take up my Cross and follow thee, even to bear thy Visitation willingly; and give me Strength by Faith, to resist the Adversary in the Brunt of Temptations. With my Sorrow and Pain increase thy Grace, that when I am in my greatest Agony, I may find Comfort, believing, and saying with the holy Prophet, My Flesh faileth, and my Heart also: But GOD is the Strength of my Heart, and my Portion for ever. O Lord, if thy Decree be gone forth, as it was to Hezekiah, that I shall die, and not live, give me Grace to put my House in Order, that I may depart with the more Peace: And when the Pangs of Death have shut up the Eyes of my Body, and taken away the Use of my Tongue, I beseech thee, let the Eyes of my Soul still be open, and look upon thee, so, that when I shall leave the Earth to the Earth, and my Body to the Grave, thine Angels may carry up my Soul into Heaven, and I may be Partaker of a joyful Resurrection, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer to be said at the Point of Death.

O Lord, my Time is at Hand, my Soul is heavy even unto Death: Look down upon me, pour thine Oil of Grace into my Heart, pardon my Sins, strengthen my Faith, shorten my Pains, and drive away Satan. Help me in this Conflict: Look upon thy Christ, he is my Saviour, and Redeemer. Come, Lord Jesus, welcome: Into thy Hands I commend my Soul. Take it, O Lord, take me, the Work of thy own Hands, and let me die in thy Fear, and rise again in thy Favour, that I may come to thy Bliss, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

SUPPLICATIONS OF SAINTS.

PART IV.

A General Thanksgiving to be used by all Men at all Times.

Psal. lxxxvi. 12, 13. I will praise thee, O Lord my GOD, with all my Heart, and will glorify thy Name, for evermore: For great is thy Mercy towards me.

Blessed Lord, and ever-living God, whose Mercy is over all thy Works, and of whose Ful-ness we have all received Grace for Grace; I, poor Samaritan, that have been holpen, healed, and honoured

noured by thy holy Hand, do pour forth my Heart unto thee, that I may neither ungratefully remember thy Benefits, nor ungraciously forget thy severe Judgments, who, both in one and the other, hast been beyond all measure so gracious unto me. I thank thee, O Lord, for all the external and internal Graces bestowed upon me, the spiritual and corporal, the celestial and terrestrial Blessings which I have received.

And in earthly Matters, O Lord, I acknowledge myself deeply bound unto thee, for my Being, Breathing, Life, and Motion; that thou hast made me of a more noble Nature than the rest of the Creatures, created me after thine own Image, enduing me with Reason, furnishing me with excellent Faculties of Mind, and perfect Sense.

And I give thee Thanks, O Lord, that thou hast given me a Body sound, and so free from great Infirmities, and hast set me in a Calling so fit for my Condition, and giving me such a competent Estate; that thou hast preserved me from so many Harms, in such dangerous Accidents, as in Sicknes, Thunder, Lightning, Plague, Pestilence, Fire, and Waters; and from the Assaults of Thieves and Robbers, by Sea and Land, attempted or intended against my Body, House, or Goods; and delivered

ed me out of so many Troubles and Vexations as I have fallen into.

O Lord, how am I bound unto thee, that thou hast sent me many kind Friends, and that I live in such honest Reputation among my Neighbours; that I have such Liberty of such seemly Recreation, such Quietness of Life, such Opportunities of Well-doing; and that thy Angels, by thine Appointment, do protect and guard me in all my Ways.

These Things, O Lord, I enjoy, though unworthy, by thy Goodness; whereas there be many that have not found the like Favour at thy Hands, blessed be thy Name therefore: And yet, O Lord, thou hast been much more gracious unto me; thy spiritual Favour, and thy celestial Blessings exceed all these. Therefore, as I am bound, so much more I bless thee that thou didst elect me before all Worlds to Glory: That thou didst work my Redemption by the Blood of Jesus Christ in his bitter Passion; that I was born in the Light of the Gospel, to know thee, and, through Satisfaction in thee, have had the Grace to take upon me, the Profession of the Truth, to abandon all Superstition and Heresy, to do Good, either public or private, and, in some measure, to keep myself unspotted from the World.

Oh ! What shall I give unto my Lord, that hath done so great and mighty Things for me ? O Lord, I give thee Thanks, that thou hast given me such an honourable Calling and Vocation of Christianity, and that thou hast incorporated me a Member of the Church, giving me such a gracious Portion of Faith, Hope, Love, Zeal, Patience, Peace, Joy, the Beginnings of Regeneration.

What am I, O Lord, that thou hast granted me such Things ? To receive such Profit by the Preaching of thy Word, and the Privilege of thy blessed Sacrament ? To be washed with thy Blood, to sit at thy Table, and to feed on thee, the everlasting Bread ?

These I thank thee for ; and these also, even my Part, which I have in the Communion of Saints, for the Benefit which I have of their Prayers in the Church militant, the Aid of their Counsels, with the Pleasure and Comfort of their Examples, for the bettering of my Life ; that thou hast given me a Care to use a good Conscience in Dealing in this World, and an earnest Desire to continue so still, yea, rather to grow better.

Neither can I forget, O Lord, thy Mercy and Patience towards me, that thou hast granted me so large a Time of Repentance, and hast vouchsafed me herein,

to

to have thy Son Jesus Christ, for my Mediator, by whose Intercession my Prayers have Access unto thee, and receive their happy Answers.

I praise thee, I glorify thee, I worship thee, I magnify thy blessed Name. O Lord, by whose Goodness I want nothing fit for a Christian, nor any Thing that may fit me for Heaven; where I thank thee for making so glorious a Provision, and such a glorious Preparation for my Soul in Heaven, whither I beseech thee to bring me, O my GOD, in thy due Time; and in the mean Time, to continue thy Goodness unto me, for Jesus Christ's Sake, my only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for the Delivery of the King's Majesty; and the State of Parliament, from the Gun-powder Treason, Nov. 5, 1605.

Psal. xxx. 12. For this shall every good Man sing of thy Praise; O my GOD, I will give Thanks unto thee for ever.

O Almighty GOD, great in Mercy, and wonderful in Judgment, who, by the Instinct of Nature, and Charge of holy Scripture, has taught us, that great Deliverances ought to have perpetual Remembrances; we, miserable Sinners, whose corrupt Nature, and vile Actions, have deserved, by extraordinary Punishments, to be made a Spectacle to the World, and to Angels, and to Men, do humbly acknowledge thy Love and Long-sufferance, in delivering us from many heavy Judgments which might justly have been brought upon us, and our chiefest Delights.

O Lord, we have heard with our Ears, and our Fathers have declared unto us, what thou didst in former Times for this Kingdom and Nation, Prince and People; how thou didst defeat the Force of the Enemies Armies; subdue open Rebellion, and how thou didst prevent the Stab of the Dagger, and overthrow the invincible Armado. And now, Lord, for us, the Father to the Children, and Old to Young, shall report how thou didst discover and disappoint that woful Tragedy, bloody Massacre, and remediless Destruction, which was ready to be brought upon us and our Nation, by thine own and our Enemies, the Abettors and Worshipers of the Church of Rome.

O Lord, we tremble to think upon it, how unjustly they intended to take us away before our Time, by secret conveying of fearful Gunpowder, covered with Iron, Wood, and Coals, ready to put Fire under a dark Vault, under the House of Parliament, a Place of State, against a present Sitting.
of

O GOD, we were without all Means to foreknow such a Misery, hadst not thou of thy great Love to true Religion, and Mercy to us, given Means to discover it to us: Yea, thou in thy Power didst make their own Pens covertly to describe it, and with thy Spirit, didst inspire the Heart of our King justly to suspect it, whereby it was revealed. Thou art our GOD, and our Hearts shall be thy Habitation, our Father's GOD, and we will exalt thee.

O Lord, if this had not been, we had been blown up, we had been smothered, we had been dismembered, we had been persecuted; we had been undone, all and some fearing thy Name, thy poor Commonalty, the worthy Gentry, the judicious Lawyer, the reverend Judge, the true Nobility, the learned Clergy, and the sacred Council of our King; yea, our King and his Queen, and all the Royal Progeny; the most honourable Assembly of Christendom sitting in their State, for the Continuance of thy Truth, and Good of the Realm.

Wherefore, good Lord, seeing thou didst bring us to the Grave's Mouth, but hast not given us over unto Death, we have imprinted in our Minds, the Horror of the Danger, and excited in our Souls due Thank-

Thankfulness for the Rescue? and therefore we praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, and all humble Thanks, and Honour, and Power, we ascribe unto thee, for this thy gracious Preservation. And we beseech thee, O Lord, still lend thy helping Hand to this Kingdom, and thy Assistance to the Gospel, and ever bless the Persons and Consultations of that High Court, with Holiness and Safety, that we may enjoy our Lives and Living, our King and Queen, and their Offspring after them, in Prosperity, to our Comfort and thy Glory, to whom we offer ourselves, our Souls, and Bodies, to be at thy Service for ever and ever. Amen.

A Comprehensive Prayer.

MOST glorious and eternal Lord God, who art of purer Eyes than to behold the least Iniquity, with the least Approbation: We, thy poor Creatures, do confess that we are vile and miserable Sinners; being conceived in Sin; by Nature Children of Wrath, and Transgressors from the Womb. All we, like Sheep, have gone astray; and turned every one to his own Way. Thou madest us, not we ourselves; and blessed be thy holy Name, thou hast been very gracious to us, giving us

us many Comforts of this Life, and the Means to bring us to eternal Life. But though we should have glorified thee with our Souls and Bodies, as being thine, and whatsoever we did, should have been done to thy Glory, and to please thee in the obeying of thy Will, yet we have displeased and dishonoured thee, and turned from thee; exalting, seeking, and pleasing ourselves. Thou art the King of all the World, and thy Laws are holy, just, and good: But we have denied thee our due Subjection and Obedience, being unruly, self-willed, minding the Things of the Flesh, and making Provision for its Lust. We have staggered at thy Word through Unbelief, and have not fully placed our Trust and Hope in Thee. We have rather feared Man that is Dust, and can but kill the Body, than thee that canst destroy both Soul and Body in Hell. Thou art infinitely good and Love itself, yet have we not fully taken thee for our Protection, nor loved thee with all our Hearts, and Souls, and Might, nor made thee our full Desire and Delight.

But we have inordinately loved ourselves, and the World, and the Things of the World, and lived by Sense, when we should have lived by Faith; and oared and laboured for the Food that perisheth, when we

we should have laboured for the one Thing needful, and that which endureth to everlasting Life. We have been slothful Servants, yielding to Temptation, ashamed of our Duty, losing our precious Time, when we should have been fervent in Spirit, serving the Lord, cleaving to thee with full Resolution, redeeming the Time, and with Diligence making sure our Calling and Election. We have not, with true Holiness and Reverence, drawn near unto thee, and used thy holy Name, thy Worship, and thy Day: We have dishonoured and disobeyed our Superiors, and neglected our Inferiors: We have been guilty of not loving our Neighbours as ourselves, and not doing unto others, as we would they should do unto us; but have sought for our own against their Welfare, not forbearing and forgiving, not loving our Enemies as we ought, not following Peace, not studying to do good to all, according to our Power. We have sinned secretly and openly, in Thought, Word, and Deed, ignorantly and presumptuously, in Passion, and upon Deliberation, against thy Precepts, Promises, and Threats; against thy Mercies and thy Judgments; under thy Patience, and in thy Sight, against our Consciences, our Purposes, and our Covenants. When we were

were hasting to Death and Judgment, for which, through all our Lives, we should have prepared, thou hast commended thy wonderful Love towards us, in giving thy Son to die for Sinners, to reconcile us to thee, while we were Enemies; and all Things being made ready, thou hast sent thy Messengers to invite us to come in, preaching to us the glad Tidings of Salvation, and freely offering to us Pardon, and Life in Jesus Christ: But we have made light of it, and made Excuses, or too long Delays, undervaluing our Redeemer, his Blood and Merits, his offered Grace and endless Glory, rejecting his holy Doctrine and Example, resisting his Spirit, Ministers, and Word. We have sinned, O Lord, against thee, and against our own Souls, and are not worthy to be called thy Children; We have deserved everlasting Wrath; to us belongs Confusion, but Mercy and Forgiveness unto thee. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to the Multitude of thy Mercies. Heal our Souls that have sinned against thee, and enter not into Judgment with thy Servants. Hide thy Face from our Sins, and blot out all our Iniquities. Cast us not away from thy Presence, and avenge not upon us the Quarrel of thy Covenant. Wash us in the Blood of the Lamb of God, which taketh away the Sins.
of

of the World. Accept us in thy beloved Son, who was made a Curse for us, and was wounded for our Transgressions. Turn us, O GOD of our Salvation, and cause thy Face to shine upon us. Give us Repentance unto Life; cause us to lothe ourselves, for all the Evils that we have committed. Give us that broken and contrite Spirit, which thou wilt not despise. Create in us a clean Heart, O GOD, and renew a right Spirit within us. Take out of us the old and stony Heart, give us the Spirit of thy Son, and be our GOD, and let us be thy People. Enlighten our Understandings, to know the wonderful Things of thy Law, the Dimensions of thy Love in Christ, the Mysteries of thy Kingdom, and the Riches of the Glory of thy Inheritance in the Saints; and that we may approve the Things that are excellent, and may escape the Snares of the Devil, and may hate every false Way. Shed abroad thy Love in our Hearts by thy Holy Spirit, and cause us so to love thee, that nothing may separate us from thy Love. Put thy Fear into our Hearts, that nothing may ever part us from thee. Cause us to seek first thy Kingdom, and thy Righteousness, and (as those that are risen with Christ) to seek the Things that are above, and to lay up a Treasure in Heaven; and let our Hearts and Conversations be there.

Mortify

Mortify our earthly Inclinations and Desires: Crucify the World to us, and us unto the World, by the Crofs of Christ. Cause us to live by Faith, and look at the Things that are unseen, and use the World as not abusing it, seeing the Fashion of it passeth away; striving to enter in at the strait Gate, and running so as to obtain. Let us no longer live the rest of our Time, to the Lusts of Men, but to the Will of God, studying in all Things to please thee. Let us not seek our own Wills, but the Will of him that called us! Yea, let us delight to do thy Will, O God. Let our Delight be in thy Law, and let us meditate therein Day and Night. Cause us to deny Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, and to live soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present World; as obedient Children, not fashioning ourselves to the former Lusts of our Ignorance; but, as he that hath called us is holy, let us be holy in all manner of Conversation. Cause us to love one another with a pure Heart, fervently, forbearing and forgiving one another, if any have a Quarrel against any, even as Christ forgave us, so do ye. Give us the Wisdom, which is first pure, and then peaceable. In our Eyes let a vile Person be contemned, but let us honour them that fear the Lord. Cause us to walk circumspectly without Offence, and to be zealous of good Works, Works, to love our Enemies, and not to give place to Wraths, and in Patience to possess our Souls. Help us to deny ourselves, and to take up our Cross and follow Christ, esteeming his Reproach to be greater Riches than the Treasures of the World, that having suffered with him, we may also be glorified with him.

Though we must be tempted, help us to overcome and be faithful unto Death, and then let us receive that Crown of Life. Abound in Goodness and Mercy to all thy People. Exalt the Throne of thy Son, and pull down the Power of Satan. Bless all Christian Kings and Governors, causing them to rule in thy Fear and Love, and to become great in Faith, Instruments for the Good of the World. Support the Sorrowful, and deliver the Distressed. Do for us, ours, and the whole Israel of God, more than we can ask or think, and through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; to whom with thee, O Father, and thy holy and blessed Spirit, be all Honour and Praise, Love and Service, now and evermore. Amen.

A Penitential Prayer to be said at anytime.

O Eternal and Almighty Lord GOD, who dost from thy Throne behold all the Dwellers upon Earth, hating Sin, but not desiring the Death of a Sinner: What are we, vile Creatures, sinful Dust and Ashes, that we should draw near so holy a God as thou art? We are a Lump of Sin, a Mass of Corruption, a Seed of Evil-doers. We have sinned against thee, O Lord: Oh! how wickedly have we done? From the corrupt Fountain of our Hearts, have continually issued forth such poisonous Streams as have infected those about us with Impurity. We are condemned of ourselves, having given Heed to Vanity and Lies, and walked at a Distance from thee, and the Things of our own Peace. We have been convinced of our Duties, and have not done them; of our Sins, and have not left them. Sin and the World have so blinded our Judgments, that we have not discerned our own Good, so that we have been willing to be miserable, and unwilling to be happy. We have not firmly believed thy Gospel, nor owned Christ in all his Offices, nor approached thy Presence with due Reverence. We have strayed from thy Ways, and followed the Devices of our own Hearts: We

We have committed the Evil thou condemnest, and omitted the Good which thou hast commanded: We have despised thy Counsel, contemned thy Mercy, and turned our Backs both upon thy Law and Gospel. We have swelled with Pride, been unprofitable in Converse, neither have been thankful for Benefits, nor improved by Means or Afflictions. All our seeming Goodness like the Morning Dew, hath soon passed away: We have not longed for Communion with thee, nor strived as we ought against our Lusts, nor been sincere in our Performance; nor sighed for the Abominations committed against thee. We have no Ways served the Ends for which thou didst create, and hast preserved us. We have committed Iniquity with a high Hand, not fearing thee, but making our Faces harder than a Rock, as though we would reproach the Lord, and as if we were at an Agreement with Hell.

O! how justly mayest thou, for all our Abominations, punish us with everlasting Destruction from thy Presence: But spare us, good Lord, according to the Greatness of thy Mercy, and deal not with us after our Sins. Look upon our Mediator and his Redemption, and in the Multitude of thy Mercies wash away all our Sins with his Blood: Say unto us, Be of good Cheer, your Sins are forgiven you. And, O give us found

found Repentance, that we may recover our Souls out of the Snare of the Devil. Open thou our Eyes, and so order our Steps, that we may walk in the Path of thy Commandments.

Let us not from henceforth walk as the Gentiles, who are alienated from the Life of God, through the Ignorance that is in them; but to put off, concerning the old Conversation, the old Man, which is corrupt, according to the deceitful Lusts, and to be renewed in the Spirit of our Minds, putting on the new Man, which, after God is created in Righteousness and true Holiness. Teach us always to do the Things which please thee, and not to do any Thing which may make our Hearts to ache. Let our rejoicing be this, even the Testimony of our Consciences, that, in Simplicity and godly Sincerity, we have had our Conversation in the World. From Pride, Hypocrisy, Malice, Uncharitableness, Blindness of Mind, and Contempt of thy Word, good Lord deliver us. Cleanse us from our secret Faults, keep back thy Servants also from presumptuous Sins; teach us to live by Faith, to disregard the World, and be more resolute against Temptations. Keep us by thy Power, through Faith, unto Salvation, and let us do, from our Hearts, whatever thou commandest us. Grant us to seek
thy

thy Glory, to be vile in our own Eyes, to deny our corrupt Inclinations, and to submit both to what thou appointest, and to what thou approvest. Let our Conversation be without Covetousness, that we may be content with such Things as we have. O Grant that we may walk worthy of the Lord unto all well pleasing, being fruitful in every good Work, and increasing in the Knowledge of God. Make us quiet and useful in the World; doing to others as we would that they should do to us. Let us no longer be Lovers of Pleasure more than Lovers of God. Give us to possess our Vessels in Sanctification and Honour, to prepare for Sicknes, Death, and Judgment; to abound in Patience, Meekness, and Temperance, and to hold on in thy Ways unto the End of our Days. We Sinners do beseech thee to hear us, and to write thy Law in our Hearts, and to settle us firmly in thy Service. Give us true Thankfulness for all Mercies, spiritual and temporal, personal and national. And herein we bless thee, that when these Kingdoms of England, Scotland, and Ireland, were under great Trouble, and the Sword, thou didst not give us over to Famine, Pestilence, and all Kind of Calamity, but didst quietly bring us to a Peace, when thou mightest have utterly destroyed us for our Sins. And seeing thou hast been pleased so mercifully and remarkably to give unto us, thy Servants, our most Gracious Sovereign Lord, King GEORGE; O God, write a Law of Thankfulness upon his Heart, and give him to walk in thy Way, to defend thy Faith, and to seek thy Glory; bless him in this World, and that to come. Be gracious to his Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; enrich them with thy heavenly Grace, prosper them with all Happiness, and crown them with endless Favours. Direct his Majesty's Counsellors, make the Judges just, honour the Nobility and Gentry with Wisdom and Virtue, cause his inferior Magistrates to execute good Laws. Let the Ministers of thy Word be faithful Labourers in thy Vineyard. Give to the whole Commonalty of this Land, religious Hearts towards thee, loyal Hearts towards the King, and loving Hearts to one another; and so let Grace and Tranquillity be continued to us and future Generations: Which Blessings, with whatever else thou in thy infinite Wisdom, knowest necessary for us, we pray thee grant, for the Sake alone of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, in whose blessed Name and Words, we continue praying, as he hath taught us, saying,
I been

Our Father, &c.

I

The

thy Glory, to be vile in our own Eyes, to deny our corrupt Inclinations, and to submit both to what thou appointest, and to what thou approvest. Let our Conversation be without Covetousness, that we may be content with such Things as we have. O Grant that we may walk worthy of the Lord unto all well pleasing, being fruitful in every good Work, and increasing in the Knowledge of God. Make us quiet and useful in the World; doing to others as we would that they should do to us. Let us no longer be Lovers of Pleasure more than Lovers of God. Give us to possess our Vessels in Sanctification and Honour, to prepare for Sicknes, Death, and Judgment; to abound in Patience, Meekness, and Temperance, and to hold on in thy Ways unto the End of our Days. We Sinners do beseech thee to hear us, and to write thy Law in our Hearts, and to settle us firmly in thy Service. Give us true Thankfulness for all Mercies, spiritual and temporal, personal and national. And herein we bless thee, that when these Kingdoms of England, Scotland, and Ireland, were under great Trouble, and the Sword, thou didst not give us over to Famine, Pestilence, and all Kind of Calamity, but didst quietly bring us to a Peace, when thou mightest have utterly destroyed us for our Sins. And seeing thou hast been pleased so mercifully and remarkably to give unto us, thy Servants, our most Gracious Sovereign Lord, King GEORGE; O GOD, write a Law of Thankfulness upon his Heart, and give him to walk in thy Way, to defend thy Faith, and to seek thy Glory; bless him in this World, and that to come. Be gracious to his Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; enrich them with thy heavenly Grace, prosper them with all Happiness, and crown them with endless Favours. Direct his Majesty's Counsellors, make the Judges just, honour the Nobility and Gentry with Wisdom and Virtue, cause his inferior Magistrates to execute good Laws. Let the Ministers of thy Word be faithful Labourers in thy Vineyard. Give to the whole Commonalty of this Land, religious Hearts towards thee, loyal Hearts towards the King, and loving Hearts to one another; and so let Grace and Tranquillity be continued to us and future Generations: Which Blessings, with whatever else thou in thy infinite Wisdom, knowest necessary for us, we pray thee grant, for the Sake alone of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, in whose blessed Name and Words, we continue praying, as he hath taught us, saying,

Our Father, &c.

I

The

The HYMN, appointed by the Church to be said or sung after the Holy Communion, turned into the ordinary Verse of the Psalms.

Psalms xviii.

ALL Glory to God on High,
And Peace on Earth likewise;
Good Will towards Men eternally,
By Christ his Sacrifice.

O God the Father, heavenly King,
We Praise and Worship thee;
We glorify thee, we give Thanks,
O Lord, for thy great Glory.

O Lord, O Lord, O Jesus Christ,
The Father's only Son,
Only Begot, the Wisdom true,
By whom all Things were done.

O Lamb of God that tak'st away,
All the Sins of the World,
By guiltless Death, on cursed Cross,
Have Mercy on us, Lord:

O thou that tak'st away the Sins
And Errors of the World,
By guiltless Death, on cursed Cross,
Receive our Prayers, Lord.

And

O thou that sitt'st on God's Right-hand,
 The Father Eternal,
 And dost our Weakness understand,
 Have Mercy on us all :

For thou only deserv'st the Name
 Of Israel's Holy One ;
 Thou holy art, thou art the Lord,
 Thou, even thou alone.

And thou only, O Jesus Christ,
 Thou, with the Holy Ghost,
 In Glory, of thy Father, art
 Most high, advanced most. Amen.

I 2

Short

Just Published, (Price 3s. 6d.)

The Nineteenth Edition, corrected and amended.

To which will be added,

A New Gamut or Introduction to Psalmody, in a clear and easy Method for the Use of young Beginners.

THE whole Book of Psalms: Collected into English Metre, by Thomas Sternbold, John Hopkins, &c. With the usual Hymns and Spiritual Songs: Together with all the ancient and proper Tunes sung in Churches, with some of latter Use. Composed in Three Parts, and set to Music, on the new ty'd Note.
 In a more plain and useful Method than hath been formerly published.

By JOHN PLAYFORD.

Where likewise may be had,

A Supplement to the New Version of Psalms. by Dr. Brady, and Mr. Tate; with the Addition of plain Instructions for those who are desirous to learn or improve themselves in Psalmody.

✎ Either of the above Books may be had bound up with Common Prayers.

Printed for R. WARE, on Ludgate-Hill.

Short GRACES, or Thanksgivings for the Table, to be used in private Sitzings, and public Meetings, by Children and others.

Before Meat.

ALmighty Lord, who, with thy Blessing, fillest every Want; and who, of thy Bounty, feedest both Man and Beast; bless us, and these thy good Creatures, which thou hast now appointed to be Food for our sinful Bodies, that, as they are manifest Tokens of thy Providence towards us, so they may be wholesome Nourishments for our Weakness, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After Meat.

ALmighty God, who hast mercifully heard our Prayers, and at this present liberally fed us; we give thee humble Thanks for thy Goodness, beseeching thee so to direct us, from henceforth with thy Grace, that, after this Life, we may be Par-

Partakers of thy heavenly Table, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Before Meat.

ALmighty GOD, on whom all Eyes attend, and receive what is fit for them, in due Season, we beseech thee to bless these Things which thou hast now given unto us for Meat; and let the Dew of thy Grace strengthen them for our Nourishment, thy Mercy pardon our Sins, and thy holy Hand defend us from all Evil, this Time and for evermore. Amen.

After Meat.

O Lord GOD, who hast now given us Power to eat of the Fruit of our Labours, and plentifully filled us with thy hidden Treasure, receive our Thanks, and grant us that sacred Hunger and Thirst after Righteousness. Give us the Peace of a good Conscience, a true Faith, charitable Minds, and Love unfeigned, one towards another, for Jesus Christ's Sake, our Lord. Amen.

Before Meat.

O Heavenly Father, without whose Mercy, the most Provident hath not a Morsel of Bread, and of whose Goodness cometh the Royal Banquet of Darius, and all other Abundance; we confess that thou hast here given us more than we can deserve, and we beseech thee to remove from us, all Abuses of thy Gifts, that our Hearts and Minds being sanctified to Moderation and Sobriety, we may only eat to live; and living, labour to attain the Bread of Life, for the Sustenance and Salvation of our Souls, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After Meat.

O Heavenly Father, though we eat and drink, yet our Life standeth not in that Abundance. We bless thy holy Name for thy Goodness, beseeching thee to bless every one of us in our several Vocations, to knit our Hearts unto thee, that we may fear thy Name; to remove thy Judgments, which we have deserved, and at last give us Life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Before

Before Meat.

O Lord Jesus, who, for the Comfort and Relief of the Company, at Cana in Galilee, didst not only adorn it with thy gracious Presence, but also turnedst Water into Wine; be present, we beseech thee, among us here. Bless our Meats and Drinks, which are the Gifts of thy Liberality, that using them with Moderation and Thanksgiving, they may become wholesome Nourishments to our mortal Bodies. Amen.

After Meat.

O Lord Jesus, the celestial Bridegroom of the Universal Church, blessed be thy Name for this our friendly Meeting, and all other Comforts both of our Bodies and Souls: Bless this Day's Work, thy holy Ordinance to thy Servants; forgive us all our Sins, and make us thankful for thy Benefits, hopeful for thy Mercies, and fearful of thy Judgments, this Day and evermore. Amen.

Before Meat.

O Gracious God, who didst multiply the small Provision of the poor Widow at Sarepta, and madest wholesome the dangerous Meat of thy Children at Gilgal, mercifully supply all our Wants, increase and bless our Store, and grant us thy Grace all the Days of our Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After Meat.

O Gracious God, who art only able, to make a great Harvest of few Grains, so a great Feast of few Loaves; we give thee Thanks, that thou hast thus satisfied us with so small Provision; beseeching thee to continue thy powerful Assistance to us, that in this Life we may always have a complete Stay for our Bodies, and in the Life to come, a permanent Kingdom for Body and Soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Before Meat.

THE Bread of Life, the Staff of Bread,
 God grant us all that daily need,
 The Staff of Bread to hold this Life,
 The Bread of Life our Souls to feed;
 The

The Bread of Life is Christ our Lord,
The Lamb of God, the Spring of Good;
The Staff of Bread Christ doth afford,
By putting Strength into our Food.
O blessed Bread, dear God, Life's Lord,
Bless all that's at, and on, this Board.

After Meat.

GOD gave Elias Meat at first,
And Israel, Manna in Desert wild,
The People that did follow Christ,
His Miracle in Mercy fill'd :
And when we want, we seek and find,
And what we have's increased more,
Our Meat's sufficing to our Mind,
Where God doth give, and bless the Store.
Blessed be God that hath our Hunger staid,
And giv'n us every one our daily Bread.

Before Meat.

AS did Elias weary in his Way,
And Christ our Lord, so oft as he did eat;
So let us ask of God, desire and pray,
To guide our Hearts and Ways, and bless our Meat. Amen.

After

After Meat.

GOD, that Elias by the Raven fed,
 And nourish'd Daniel in the Lion's Den,
 And fill'd Thousands with five Loaves of Bread,
 And us hath satisfied, be praised. A- men.

A Sup-

This Day is Published, [Price 4s. 6d.]

AN HISTORICAL NARRATION of the whole BIBLE.
 IN TWO PARTS.

The First, treating of the Old Testament, with the various Histories of the Lives, eminent Examples, and glorious Actions of the Patriarchs, Judges, Kings, and Prophets, interspersed with many plain, profitable and pious Instructions and Observations thereupon.

The Second, containing an Account of the Life and Travels of our Blessed Saviour and his Apostles. With a Summary of the Matter, Doctrine, Scope, and Divine Authority of all the Canonical Epistles. And an Explanation of several chief Heads in that Mysterious Book of St. John's Revelation.

By J. HAMOND, D. D.

The Whole being an useful Guide to such as desire to read the Holy Scriptures, to their spiritual Comfort and Advantage. Curiously adorned with proper Cuts, engraved by

Mr. JOHN STURT.

Where may be had,

All Sorts of Bibles and Common Prayers, with or without Cuts, in all manner of Bindings, by Wholesale or Retail.

Printed for R. WARE, on Ludgate-Hill.

A Supplication of the Author for all.

O Eternal Majesty, ^a un- ^a Psal. lxxv. 2.
to whom all Flesh shall come, who seeſt ^b we ^b Rom. viii. 26.
know not what to pray for as we ought, yet haſt ^c ac- ^c Jer. xlii. 2.
cepted theſe my weak and worthleſs Meditations, to conceive and bring forth
theſe continual ^d Supplica- ^d Heb. v. 7.
tions and Prayers, and Thankſgivings, ^e bleſſed be ^e Job i. 21.
thy Name, ^f Glory be to ^f Luke ii. 14.
thee, and ^g Thanks for ^g 2 Cor. ix. 15.
thine unſpeakable Gift :
And I humbly beſeech thee,
when any of thy dear Saints
ſhall ^h bow their ⁱ Knees to ^h Col. i. 2.
thy Majesty, ^k lifting up ⁱ Eph. iii. 14.
their Hands towards thy ^k Pſal. cxli. 2.
holy Oracle, ^l opening their ^l Ezek. iii. 7.
Mouths to beg thy Favour,
then, O thou ^m GOD of ^m Acts i. 3.
Glory, ⁿ the Father of ⁿ 2 Cor. i. 3.
Mercies, ^o hear thou in ^o 1 Kings viii. 30.
Heaven, thy Dwelling-place, and do according to all that they ſhall call unto thee for, and let the ^p Mal. iii. 1.
Angel of Covenant, thy

Son

180 SUPPLICATIONS, &c. Part IV.

§ 2 Esd. iii. 24. Son Jesus Christ ^a offer thee the holy Incenses with their Prayer before thee, ^r O thou Preserver of Men, and the Holy Ghost thy Spirit, ^s help their Infirmities in their Prayers, and make Intercession for them:
 O Lord, ^t grant Peace unto Israel, ^u send help unto ^v Jacob, ^x hear these Prayers and Supplications, O Lord my GOD. Amen and A- men.

F I N I S.

A T A B L E
OF THE
P R A Y E R S

In every P A R T.

The First P A R T.

P rayers for Morning, Noon, and Evening, every Day in the Week	Page 1
A Prayer for the Ministers of the Word	4
A Prayer to GOD the Father	9
A Prayer to GOD the Son	14
A Prayer to GOD the Holy Ghost	19
A Prayer for Sobriety	24
A Prayer for Chastity	28
A Prayer for Patience	33
A Prayer at our awaking	36
	A

182 CONTENTS.

A Prayer when we cannot sleep	Page 37
A Prayer for the Morning	38
A Prayer for the Evening	40
A short Prayer for the Morning	42
A short Prayer for the Evening	43
A Preparative to the Meditations ensuing	ibid.
A Meditation, or Prayer, upon the Life, Death, and Passion of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ	45

The Second PART.

T WO Prayers for a private Family in the Morning	53, 56
Two Prayers for a private Family, in the Evening	58, 60
A Form of Prayer for Morning and Evening	62
Two Prayers for the Church	67, 70
Two Prayers for the King	72, 74
A Prayer against Temptations, &c.	76
A Prayer for the Remission of Sins, &c.	78
A Prayer for Christian Virtues	81
Two Prayers before the Communion	83, 86
Two Prayers after the Communion	88, 89
A Prayer for the Fruits of the Earth	91
A Prayer for Friends and Benefactors	93
Two Prayers in Time of War	95, 96
Two Prayers for Sick Persons	98, 100
A Prayer before one takes a Journey	102
A Prayer in Time of Affliction	104
A Prayer in Time of Plague	106

CONTENTS. 183

A Prayer in Time of Thunder and Lightning	Page 108
An ancient Prayer called, O bountiful
JESUS: Translated according to the Latin
Copy, written by the Author thereof, above
One Hundred Years ago	109

The Third PART.

Queen Elizabeth's Three Prayers	Page 111, 113, 114
The Householder's Prayers	115, 117
The Wife's Prayer for her Husband	119
The Widow's Prayer	121
The Prayer of Women with Child	123
The Midwife's Prayer	124
A Prayer in Time of Women's Travail	126
A Prayer after Women's Deliverance	128
Two Prayers for Children, &c.	129, 131
The Fatherless Child's Prayer	132
The Scholar's Prayer	134
The Soldier's Prayer	136
Two Prayers for Servants	138, 140
The Maid's Prayers	141
The Mariner's Prayer	143
A Prayer of one afflicted in Conscience for Sin	145
The Sick Man's Prayer	147
A Prayer at the Time of Death	150

The

184 CONTENTS.

The Fourth PART.

A General Thanksgiving for all Men, and at all Times	Page 251
A Thanksgiving for Deliverance from the Gun- powder Treason	155
A Comprehensive Prayer	158
A penitential Prayer for any Time	165
Gloria in Excelsis in Verse	170
Divers Graces in Prose and Verse	172—177
A Supplication of the Author for all	179

This Day is Published,

A New HOUSE BIBLE, in Folio, lately printed at OXFORD; with a curious Set of Cuts, engraved by Mr. STURT: Containing near 300 Historical Cuts, with whole Sheet Maps of Sacred Geography, and Brief Concordance and Table, serving for the more easy finding out of the most useful Places therein contained, carefully perused and enlarged.

By JOHN DOWNAME, B. D.

	l.	s.	d.
Bound in Turkey Leather, Price	3	15	0
Ditto in Calf, gilt and lettered	2	15	0
Without Cuts, plain Calf	1	11	6

Printed for R. WARE, on Ludgate-Hill.

